Plot to Blow Up the City of Paris.

The Orleans Princes Decline Their Seats in the Assembly—Letter from M. Guizot—Appointment of French Cabinet Ministers—Trial of Rochefort and Assy Postponed—The Murderer of Generals Lecomte and Thomas Arrested—New French Loan Proposed—Fortresses to be Erected in the Interior of Paris—Opening of the Roumanian Chambers, &c., &c.

Appointment of French Cabinet Ministers—Trial of Rochefort and Assy Postponed—Plot to Blow up the City of Paris.

VERSAILLES, June 6.—The Journal Officiel announces the following appointments: Lambrecht, Minister of the Interior; Le Franc, Minister of Agriculture; General Cissey, Minister of War; Leon Say, Prefect of the Seine, and General Leflo, Ambassador to St. Petersburg.

The Journal Officiel also states that the time for holding the supplementary elections has not yet been fixed. Tranquility prevails throughout France.

The Constitutionnel says: The first duty of the Assembly is to fill its own one hundred and twenty seats; next to assume constitutional power, and finally to order a plebiscite for the determination of the question of a future form of government.

Schumacher, the murderer of Generals Lecomte and Clement Thomas, has been arrested.

The trial of Rochefort and Assy has been postponed.

Wires have recently been discovered in the sewers of Paris, through the agency of which it was intended to blow up the city.

Gambetta is still at San Sebastian.

Letter from Mr. Guizot.

LONDON, June 6.—A letter from M. Guizot published to-day, advocates the validation of elections to the Assembly of the Duke D'Aumale and Prince de Joinville, and the settlement of a form of government for France by a vote of nations.

The Orleans Princes Will Decline Seats in the Assembly.

LONDON, June 6, 5 A. M.—A special dispatch to the Times, from Versailles, says that it is the intention of the Orleans Princes to decline the seats to which they have been elected in the Assembly.

M. Auguste Vermorel, the well known radical journalist of Paris, is dead.

Members of the Diplomatic Corps are returning to Paris.

A French loan of £100,000,000 is proposed.

Imperial Candidates for the Assembly—Fortresses to be Erected in the Interior of Paris.

PARIS, June 6.—Several of the officials under the Empire will become candidates at the supplementary elections for the Assembly. La Verite thinks all the Ministers who belonged to the Government of the 4th of September should leave the present Cabinet. The same journal expresses its opposition to a plebiscite. The Journal des Debats praises the course pursued by the English Government and people during the war.

The fortresses proposed for the interior of Paris have been located at Montmartre and Chaumont, and engineers have already commenced work upon them.

The Roumanian Chambers.

BUCHAREST, June 5.—The sessions of the Roumanian Chambers were opened to-day by Prince Charles, who met with an enthusiastic reception.

Solemn High Mass for the Priests Assassinated in Paris.

ROME, June 6.—By order of the Pope solemn high mass was said to-day in honor of the French priests assassinated by the Communists in Paris.

Minister Schenck Welcomed to England.

LONDON, June 6.—The Times welcomes Minister Schenck to England.

Marine News.

LONDON, June 6.—The steamship New York arrived at Southampton, and the Aleppo at Queenstown. The steamship Baltimore touched at Southampton and the Prussian at Moville.

UTICA, OHIO.

Drowned Man Found in the Creek—Supposed to be W. N. Ogden, Agent of a Pittsburgh Glass House.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

UTICA, O., June 6, 1871.

A strange man and horse were found drowned in the creek, half a mile south of here this afternoon. From papers found on the person of the man, there is no doubt it was W. N. Ogden, agent of a Pittsburgh glass house. It is supposed he drove into the creek to water his horse and got into a deep hole.

NEW ORLEANS.

Cause of the Great Inundation—2,500 Houses Partially Submerged—The Damage to Property Over Half a Million Dollars.

NEW YORK, June 6.—A dispatch from New Orleans last night says: Twenty-five hundred houses have their ground floors under water, and more than that number of families are to-night homeless and desolate. The canal runs from the heart of the city to Lake Ponchartrain. This is always a navigable channel, ten or twelve feet deep, and the river steamers and schooners perpetually pass and repass. The damage done by the flood is estimated at $500,000. The break began to threaten on Hogan avenue Thursday night. The Canal Commissioners sold to certain persons the right to remove the dirt from the levee to the low vacant lots. On Friday morning one of these men was at work with his cart, carrying away the levee at the very point where the weakness was manifested. A colored man named Lucern Tennigeau living close by begged him to desist, for an east wind was blowing and the water of the lakes swollen by the immense torrent pouring in from the Mississippi by way of the Bonnet Carre crevasse were rapidly backing up to the city. He was driven away by threats. The next morning a chasm one hundred and eighty-five feet wide was opened in the banks. Suits will be entered against the Canal Company to make good the damage.

Seven cases of sun-stroke occurred yesterday.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA.

Advices from South America—Coffee Crop Prospects—Affairs of the Isthmus of Panama, &c., &c.

KINGSTON, JAMAICA, June 5.—The British Consul at Maracaibo has returned to his post, the British Minister at Caraccas having refused to send gunboats to his assistance.

Advices from Gonaives to the 1st contain an account of a terrible fire, which destroyed a large number of buildings.

The prospect for a very heavy crop of coffee was excellent.

San Domingo advices say crops of all kinds are promising a heavy yield.

ASPINWALL, June 3, via KINGSTON, June 5.—Affairs of the Isthmus of Panama are quiet.

Advices from Peru state that the prosperity of the country is increasing.

Bolivia dates to the 10th of May have been received. The Ministry were unpopular, the Indians warlike and threatening, and had seized several haciendas. There were several candidates for the Presidency and troubles are expected.

Guatemala dates to the 19th have been received. The Revolutionists had captured Escuentia. The inhabitants were highly incensed at the government and affairs were threatening.

NEWS SUMMARY

BY TELEGRAPH.

City of Mexico advices of the 30th of May say: Port Ventaza has been closed and Salina Cruz substituted. The Government is increasing the regular army, which the opposition say is to maintain Juarez in power. Romero has triumphed over his accusers.

The bodies of the journalists, Spaght and Lodge, of the Montreal Gazette, who went over Lachine Rapids, have been recovered.

Exiles of Erin Cubly and Burke received an immense ovation on their arrival at San Francisco Monday night.

Excursionists to the Yo Semite Valley are leaving San Francisco at the rate of fifty to one hundred daily.

Mayor Adams, of Portsmouth, N. H., was yesterday taken to the insane asylum.

The stone abutment and iron girder bridge over the river Neath, three miles west of Paris, Ontario, gave way Monday night, precipitating twenty-four freight cars into the creek. No one hurt.

STATE POLITICS.

Special Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Commercial
INDIANA, PA., June 5, 1871.

The Republicans of this county put in nomination the following ticket on Saturday, June 3d: Senate—Gen. Harry White; Assembly—Dr. Thos. McMullen; Associate Judges—J. S. Nesbit, P. Dills; District Attorney—W. R. Allison; Commissioner—James M. Hask; Register and Recorder—W. R. Black; Treasurer—James M. Sutton.

Gen. Dan. S. Porter was unanimously elected by the Return Judges Chairman of the County Committee.

Democratic Prospects.

[From the New York Herald.]

Brilliant as were the prospects before them, with so glorious a send-off as the platforms and the candidates of the Pennsylvania and Ohio Democracies, a vampire interposes his greedy presence between the national Democracy and success, the Republican waverers are driven back into their former household, and a wet blanket thrown upon Democratic enthusiasm everywhere. It will take many "new departures" of the Democracy to overcome the stigma which a conceited vaporer like Jeff. Davis can cast upon the party whenever he chooses to open his mouth and wag his tongue on the subject of national politics. There is many a slip between the cup and the lip, and the Democracy will find that this is one of them.

Commissioner McGee.

The resignation of Mr. McGee, as stated yesterday, was prepared Monday evening, and placed in the hands of his counsel. For some reason not explained, it was not handed to the Court yesterday, as anticipated. Had it been, Mr. McGunnegle, Mr. Dilworth's opponent in the convention, would doubtless have been nominated for the second vacancy in the License Board. Should Mr. McGee resign hereafter, another convention will have to be called. It is thought the case of the Commonwealth vs. Jonathan Neely, indicted for bribery, will come up for trial in the Quarter Sessions to-day.

WASHINGTON.

Status of the Indian Question.

Testimony Taken in the Ku-Klux Investigation—The Negro Communist Movement Exerting a Disastrous Effect on Trade—Regulations Requiring Signal Lights on Vessels, &c., &c.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, 1871.

The Indian Question.

It is difficult to get at any reliable or intelligible information concerning the precise state of the Indian question, but no unauthorized and irresponsible newspaper statements can wipe out the fact that great diversity of opinion exists between the army officers and the superintendents, agents and traders relative to the success of the reservation and educational plan, and the prospects of peace and civilization in the near future. The army men allege that the Indians make use of the reservations to rest and feed themselves and their ponies between times, and as secure places to leave their women, children and old men, as well as convenient depots to procure arms and ammunition, and that at the very time of the year when, if ever, they can do anything toward acquiring the means and knowledge of self-support, they start off in small hunting parties after white scalps and plunder. The agents, on the contrary, take the conservative Ku-Klux view of the matter. They admit that the young men brought up to a life of idleness, except so far as relates to a useless outdoor activity, do get a little exhilerated occasionally and roust about among the settlers; but they deny that this represents the average reservation Indian or the state of public feeling in the average wigwam.

The Ku-Klux Investigation.

The Ku-Klux Committee were in session several hours to-day. The principal witnesses examined were Governor Scott and ex-Governor Orr, of South Carolina. Scott's testimony went to show that the Ku-Klux organization in his State was widely different from that in other States; that it was under control of regular laws and rules, and copies of the same were produced for the inspection of the Committee. Mr. Orr's testimony was to the same effect, and his examination will be resumed to-morrow. A sub-committee will be sent to Charleston and Columbia during the summer to further investigate into these matters.

The Negro Communist Movement

In this city and vicinity is really getting to be a serious affair. Negro labor being the basis of all kinds of industry, and the strike having extended to laborers in all capacities, general business has been almost brought to a stand still. The coal trade at Georgetown has suffered most thus far, as shipments have been diverted entirely to Baltimore, while numberless buildings in projection or process of erection have been abandoned. In one instance of the latter character a project for erecting a fine block of buildings in the eastern part of the city, for which the plans had been drawn and money for the prosecution of the work brought here for investment from Philadelphia was to-day abandoned by the projector, and the money returned to Philadelphia, because of the difficulties and enhanced cost brought on by the strike. Others contemplating extensive improvements propose to abandon them, at least for this season. Altogether the result of the strike cannot but be disastrous to the laboring men. It was badly timed and very badly managed.

Signal Lights for Vessels.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day directed that circulars embodying the following section of the act to provide for the better security of life on board of vessels, should be immediately sent to all the customs and revenue officers where the provisions of the law are to be enforced: "It shall be the duty of all collectors or other chief officers of the customs to require all sailing vessels to be furnished with proper signal lights, as provided for by the act of April 29th, 1864, entitled 'an act fixing certain rules and regulations for preventing collisions on the water, and every such vessel shall, on the approach of any steamer during the night time, show a lighted torch upon the point or quarter to which such steamer shall be approaching; and every such vessel that shall be navigated without complying with the terms of the said act of April 29th, 1864, and the provisions of this section shall forfeit and pay the sum of $200, one-half to go to the informer, and for which sum the vessel so navigated shall be liable, and may be seized and proceeded against by way of libel in any District Court of the United States having jurisdiction of the offense."

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, 1871.

DISTILLERY STATISTICS.

The small number of distilleries in operation throughout the United States as seen by the statement made for the month of May, is to be accounted for by the failure of distillers to renew their bonds, as it is customary to suspend operations during the summer months and commence again in the fall of the year, when the amount called for upon the renewal of a bond is four hundred dollars less than would be required were the distilleries in operation throughout the summer.

THE TREATY IN ENGLAND.

Private letters received in this city from England, state that Disraeli will positively support the treaty of Washington. His influence added to that of Sir Stafford Northcote, in the House of Commons, is expected to carry a majority of the Tory party.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

Receipts from Internal Revenue services the first six days in the month of June of the present year, compared with the same time in June, 1870, shows a falling off of nearly five million dollars.

THE NEW LOAN.

The subscriptions to the new loan to-day were $20,000.

THE OIL REGIONS.

Latest Strikes in Various Fields.

New Wells on Church Run, Bear Creek, Reno, Patchel Run and Cranberry—Oil Items from West Virginia.

CHURCH RUN.

The Titusville Courier reports that another large well on Church Run commenced pumping on Saturday. It is on the McKnight farm, and is owned by Messrs. Currie, Collins & Loverock, is situated about twenty rods east of the Burtis well, on entirely new territory, and is doing fully one hundred barrels a day.

BEAR CREEK.

The Herald says: The Germer well on the Robinson farm, Bear Creek, Duchess tract, owned by Germer, Sharkley & Harrop, was tested on Friday and torpedoed, and is now producing 150 barrels of oil per day.

The Persons Bros. & Galey well, on Bear Creek, commenced flowing through the casing on Wednesday. They had only got ten feet in the sand. The well is 1,030 feet deep.

Mr. Thomas Donnelly, owner of the Donnelly tract on Bear Creek, struck a forty barrel well on Wednesday—only six feet in sand.

RENO.

The Courier says: Well No. 33, which was drilled to the second sand six weeks since, and from which the supply of oil was about exhausted, has been drilled deeper, struck the third sand, and commenced pumping last Saturday. Fifty barrels a day is a low estimate of its yield.

No. 36 is yielding about ten barrels a day of second sand oil.

No. 34 is down to the third sand, and commenced pumping on Friday. It yields about ten barrels a day.

PATCHEL RUN.

A company of gentlemen completed, about a week ago, a well on the Dr. Fee farm, some distance up the east branch of Patchel Run, and on entirely new territory. It is yielding some four or five barrels daily.

CRANBERRY.

The Finley & Co.'s well No. 2 had penetrated the third sand about three feet last Friday afternoon, and had about 300 feet of oil in the hole, making a good show for a paying well.

WEST VIRGINIA ITEMS.

The Burning Springs correspondent of the Wirt county Democrat furnishes the following items:

The Wirt Oil Company has secured what is known as the Copeland Farm, and are making every preparation to put down a well. Teams are at work today hauling machinery, tankage, &c. The Clouston Wells still continue to pump from five to six barrels daily. The Hosey Well is creating no little excitement—it throws the oil out with such force at times that the workmen find it impossible to remain about the derrick. Mr. E. Braidon is cleaning out the Hall well. It has been flowing for some time, and was purchased last winter by Messrs. Newberger & Braidon. Col. W. W. Thomason, after an absence of about six weeks, returned home yesterday. F. Bowen, Esq., has an engine in his shop that is propelled by gas; he also has a small engine in his dwelling house that is run by gas. It is used for the purpose of forcing water through the house and watering the garden. Messrs. Buffington & McCosh are having a new condensing tank built with capacity for another still. They have also added another barrel shed to their works. Considerable excitement prevails here at present on account of the advance in oil, hence it is impossible to give you the correct price.

PHILLIPSBURGH SOLDIERS' ORPHANS.

They Return Thanks for the Treatment Received on Decoration Day.

The pupils of the soldiers' orphans of the Phillipsburg school, who visited Pittsburgh on Decoration Day and participated in the procession in honor of the dedication of the monument, held a meeting on Saturday, and adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, That we, the soldiers' orphans of the Phillipsburgh school, return our most hearty thanks, and hereby express our highest appreciation of the special kindness shown us during our visit to the city, on the occasion of dedicating the soldiers' monument; to the several military committees; to Captain N. M. Smith, Major E. A. Montooth, General Pearson and General Rowley; to the escort, Messrs. Hunter, McClure, Woodwell and Timmony, and to the Grand Army of the Republic in general; to His Honor Mayor Brush and Mr. William Reinhart, for valuable assistance; to Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Preston, Mrs. McKee, Miss Duhm and other ladies, and Messrs. Smith, Preston, Moore and others, who provided so splendid a feast for us at City Hall, which was so abundant that not only satisfied our appetites to their fullest extent, but the kind friends filled our pockets and our baskets; to Major John W. Haney and the other gentlemen who furnished their very comfortable conveyances; to the drivers and their aids who sought to make our ride as comfortable as possible; to Mr. A. A. Carpenter, for his water coolers; to the many citizens for the kindness we received; to Mr. A. M. Marshall and lady, for a splendid time enjoyed on their ground, to which we were generously invited to rest before taking the cars; to the railway employees for their special attention, and to the Economy Society for a fine supply of flowers.

Our thanks, is all the present return we can make, Hoping and praying that we may never dishonor the kindness so generously bestowed, but that by a life of obedience and study, industry and usefulness, we may show our appreciation of the great care of this great State, and of the unwearied attentions of our foster parents (Mr. and Mrs. Taylor), and the teachers, and the kindness of so many friends.

MINNIE COLE, President.
W. STEVENS, Secretary.

Pittsburgher Drowned at Utica, Ohio.

A special telegram to the COMMERCIAL, published elsewhere, announces the finding of the body of Wm. N. Ogden, in a creek about half a mile below the town of Utica, Ohio, yesterday, and from papers found on his person, it was supposed he was the agent of a glass firm in this city. His horse was also found drowned, and it is supposed he drove into the creek to allow the animal to drink, when it got into a hole and sank with its rider. Mr. Ogden was formerly a member of the Councils of this city, representing the Second ward in that capacity for several years, was a prominent politician, and more recently a member of the queensware and glass firm of Boyts & Ogden. We shall doubtless have further particulars of his sudden and untimely end to-day.

SECOND EDITION.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.

A County Ticket Nominated.

Close Contests for Assembly and Commissioner.

The State Nominees and Platform Indorsed.

Hon. James L. Graham and Hon. Miles S. Humphreys for State Senate—Messrs. D. N. White, James Taylor, Matthew Edwards, John Gilfillan, Alexander Miller, J. W. Ballantine and H. K. Sample for Assembly—Joseph Dilworth for Commissioner—Henry Warner for Controller, etc., etc.

Pursuant to call of the Republican County Executive Committee, the several Conventions assembled yesterday, full reports of which are given below:

Bockstoce; Marshall, George Neely; Harrison, C. W. Revmer; Lincoln, G. Caughey; Forward, Wm. Shreader; Stowe, John Caughey; Verona, J. C. Stewart.

The list was then called over, when it appeared the delegates from all but two districts were present.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

On motion of W. R. Johnston, of Bellevue, Mr. Hugh McNeill, of Allegheny City, was elected permanent Chairman.

Mr. McNeill thanked the Convention for the unexpected honor, after which he announced the Convention ready for business.

On motion of S. J. Wainwright, the temporary Secretaries were continued as permanent Secretaries.

COMMITTEE ON CONTESTED SEATS.

On motion, a committee of three consisting of Messrs. W. R. Johnston, of Bellevue, Mr. W. F. Trimble, of the Sixth ward, Allegheny, and J. B. Sneathen, of the Twenty-third ward, Pittsburgh, were appointed on the contested seats of delegates from Indiana township, two sets having appeared and claimed seats.

VIVA VOCE SYSTEM ADOPTED.

On motion, it was decided that when the time arrived, the balloting be done "viva voce."

THE NOMINATIONS.

The Chairman announced the next business to be nominations for the several offices, beginning with Treasurer.

The following were then made: Samuel Kilgore, Archibald Pillow, Thomas D. Patterson, and W. A. Herriott.

For Controller—W. C. Friend, Henry Warner, and Henry Snively.

For Director of the Poor—J. G. Murray.

On motion of Capt. Corey, it was decided to proceed with the balloting without adjourning for dinner.

THE FIRST BALLOT.

The roll was then called, each member of the Convention designating his candidate, and at the close the vote stood as follows:

TREASURER.

Kilgore	56	Patterson	27
Pillow	31	Herriott	1

CONTROLLER.

Friend	45	Snively	15
Warner	55

There being no choice for either office, the Chairman decided another ballot in order.

DELEGATES ADMITTED.

Before proceeding with the ballot, however, the Committee on Contested Seats from Indiana township appeared, and through the Chairman, reported in favor of admitting Alfred Grimett to a seat in the Convention. The report was adopted and the gentleman admitted.

MOTIONS RULED OUT.

A motion was made to proceed with the second ballot, but other motions, namely, that the two highest on the list be declared elected, and "that Samuel Kilgore be elected by acclamation," were made before a vote could be taken and the business of the Convention was somewhat retarded. Finally the Chairman ruled everything out of order except the motion to go into a second ballot, which motion prevailed.

WITHDRAWALS—KILGORE NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION.

The name of Mr. Herriott was withdrawn before the close of the first ballot, and while the second was being proceeded with those of Messrs. Pillow and Patterson were withdrawn, and the track being clear, Mr. Samuel Kilgore was nominated by acclamation amid a storm of applause and cheers by his friends.

THE CONTROLLERSHIP CONTEST—WARNER ELECTED.

The name of Mr. Snively for Controller was also withdrawn, and a motion immediately made to elect Mr. Warner by acclamation, but it did not take, inasmuch as the name of Mr. Friend was still before the Convention, and the ballot was proceeded with, and resulted as follows:

Warner	71
Friend	42

MR. WARNER THANKS THE CONVENTION.

The Chairman declared Mr. Warner the nominee of the convention, which was greeted with prolonged cheers and applause. Mr. Warner being present, was introduced to the convention and made a brief speech, thanking his friends for the confidence reposed in him, and expressing the desire that his duties might be discharged in such a manner as to not abuse that confidence.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

On motion, the Chair appointed Messrs. David Aiken, Denny O'Neil and Samuel Hastings, a committee to meet similar committees from the other conventions, and draft resolutions suitable to the occasion. The committee subsequently reported two resolutions, which were unanimously adopted. They will be found elsewhere.

DIRECTOR OF POOR.

On motion, J. G. Murray was elected Director of the Poor by acclamation, after which the convention adjourned sine die.

Convention No. 2—County Commissioner and County Surveyor.

This Convention was called to order by Major Wm. B. Negley.

On motion, Messrs. R. A. Clarke, Thomas S. Maple, Wm. J. Friday and W. J. Simpson were chosen temporary Secretaries.

LIST OF DELEGATES.

The credentials of delegates were then called for, when the following named persons were admitted to seats:

PITTSBURGH—First ward, W. J. Latimer; Second, H. H. McCormick; Third, B. Galisath; Fourth, W. J. Simpson; Fifth, Joseph Hastings; Sixth, Thomas Lloyd; Seventh, Henry Jones; Eighth, John Wallace; Ninth, John Froelich; Tenth, W. J. Friday; Eleventh, W. H. Hagan; Twelfth, S. T. ELECTION OF PERMANENT CHAIRMAN.

The roll having been called, Major Negley announced the Convention ready for permanent organization.

Gen. Thomas M. Howe and Mr. Wm. McKim were nominated, the former representing the Dilworth and the latter the McGunnegle interest.

The question being put, the temporary chairman decided that Gen. Howe was elected.

A division was called for, after the question had been decided.

Gen. Howe remarked that he would rather not take the chair unless a clear majority of the convention desired it.

Major Negley then withdrew his decision, and took a division, which resulted, Howe 58, McKim 44.

Major Negley—I thought I was not mistaken in my ruling. Allow me to introduce your Chairman, Gen. Howe. [Applause.]

REMARKS OF GENERAL HOWE.

General Howe, on taking the chair, said:

GENTLEMEN: I can do no less than thank you for the honor you have conferred in calling me to preside over this respectable body, although I feel that you might have selected some one more competent to discharge the duties, as I am not accustomed to the routine of political conventions. But I shall endeavor to preside with fairness and impartiality, and do as best I may. We have met for a very important purpose, although the amount of business to be done is not large. We are to nominate two gentlemen on the Republican ticket—one to fill the office of County Commissioner and the other that of County Surveyor. Both these offices are executive in their character, and require men of capacity and unquestioned integrity. To the former pertains the supervisory power over our taxes and the duty of granting tavern licenses. The other establishes the metes and bounds of our property. The License Board, under a recent decision of the County Court, has the full and absolute control of the licensing of taverns, there being no right of appeal from their decision. It must be understood, then, that if these men make a mistake, however fatal it may be to the interests of society, the Court has no authority to review or reverse their action. It is important, therefore, gentlemen, that you nominate men who are competent, and who have the honesty and the moral courage so to discharge their duties as that the best interests of the community may be protected, and the integrity of the laws always firmly maintained. I hope, gentlemen, that our action to-day will reflect credit upon ourselves, and redound to the best interests of the community. [Applause.] The Convention is now ready for business.

On motion, the temporary Secretaries were continued as permanent officers.

VIVA VOCE.

Mr. Harbaugh moved that in the nomination of candidates the Convention vote viva voce. The motion was adopted with but one negative vote.

CONTESTED SEATS.

On motion Messrs. Jacob Brush, R. F. Smyth, Wm. McKim, John Froelich and J. C. Risher were appointed a committee on contested seats.

ADJOURNMENT.

It was moved that when the Convention adjourn for dinner, it adjourn to meet at one o'clock.

Capt. R. C. Gray moved that the Convention now proceed to nominate candidates.

A division was called, and the vote stood: Yeas, 51; nays, 42.

The Chairman announced that the Convention was ready to receive names.

Mr. McKim asked how the convention was to proceed until the committee on contested seats reported? It was but just that every delegate be entitled to his vote.

The chairman remarked that the convention had resolved to go on, and if there was any hardship in that action, it was in the power of the body to rectify it.

After some discussion, the convention finally agreed to take a recess until one o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention reassembled promptly at one, and was called to order by the chairman.

Mr. Brush, Chairman of the Committee on Contested Seats, reported that the only contest was in West Elizabeth borough, where it was claimed there was a tie vote. Wm. Youdan, one of the delegates, presented his credentials in person, while the other did not appear. The committee reported in favor of giving the seat to Mr. Youdan, a McGunnegle delegate.

Mr. Smyth, one of the committee, dissented from this action, and refused to sign the report, taking the ground that in the case of a tie there was no election, and that neither delegate should be admitted. It was under this impression that the Dilworth delegate did not appear.

The report of the committee was adopted.

THE NOMINATIONS.

The convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for Commissioner, when several delegates simultaneously announced the name of Mr. James McGunnegle.

Captain Gray nominated Joseph Dilworth, whereupon the nominations closed.

Messrs. Robert Clugston and M. B. Goff were placed in nomination for the office of County Surveyor.

On motion of Captain Way, it was ordered that the names of the delegates be called in reverse order, beginning at the foot of the roll.

THE BALLOT FOR COMMISSIONER.

The following is the result of the ballot for County Commissioner:

Dilworth	7	4	16	34	61
McGunnegle	20	7	9	15	51

Dilworth's majority	10

The result of the ballot was hailed with loud applause by the supporters of Mr. Dilworth.

COUNTY SURVEYOR.

A ballot was then taken for County Surveyor, with the following result:

Clugston	76
Goff	7

Mr. Clugston was declared nominated by acclamation.

INDORSING THE STATE TICKET.

J. C. Newmyer, Esq., offered resolutions indorsing the nominees and the platform of the State Convention at Harrisburg, which were unanimously adopted. The resolutions were similar to those adopted in Convention No. 1.

MR. M'GEE'S PLACE.

A delegate moved that the convention recommend the appointment of Mr. McGunnegle to fill the vacancy (should one occur) by the contemplated resignation of Mr. McGee.

The chair ruled this motion out of order, as it did not come within the purview of the convention.

After passing a vote of thanks to the Chairman and the Secretaries, for the satisfactory manner in which they had discharged their duties, the convention adjourned sine die.

Convention No. 3—District Attorney and Assistant District Attorney.

This Convention convened in the Common Pleas Court room.

At ten o'clock the convention was called to order by B. C. Christy, Esq., who had been appointed temporary chairman by the County Executive Committee. The chairman then stated that the first thing in order would be the election of temporary secretaries.

On motion of W. C. McCarthy, the following named gentlemen were elected temporary secretaries by acclamation: J. A. McQuaide, W. J. Diehl, James Bradley and M. A. Woodward.

James A. Larimer was appointed door-keeper by the temporary chairman.

Joseph A. Butler moved that the secretaries proceed to call the roll of delegates. Carried.

While the roll was being called, Sheriff Fleming moved that in the absence of two of the temporary secretaries (Woodward and Bradley) Jos. A. Butler and Joel. Bilgham be appointed additional secretaries. Carried.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION EFFECTED.

The roll of delegates now being made out, Mr. Fleming moved that the Convention now proceed to the election of permanent officers. Carried.

Mr. Fleming moved that Alexander M. Watson be the permanent Chairman of the Convention. The motion was carried unanimously.

On motion of Mr. McCarthy, the temporary Secretaries were made permanent.

ADDRESS OF THE CHAIRMAN.

Mr. Watson, the President elect, was now conducted to the chair, and made the following address.

Gentlemen of the Convention—I am surprised that you have chosen me to preside over this Convention, and all I have to say is that I will endeavor to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. We represent a branch of the Republican party, and are now going to make nominations, and I see from the candidates that we will have very little difficulty to make nominations that will be worthy the Republican party. I hope that all the delegates assembled here to-day will act harmoniously, and that they will in good faith make an earnest endeavor to select good men—true men, and their preparations for the contest that is approaching. I do consider that the contest in which the Republican party has been engaged for the last eight years or more is ended. I think the indications are that the war is to be renewed, and the battles fought over again, if not with swords with something almost as bad. I discover in the movements of the late arch rebel, Jefferson Davis, who is still encouraging the Southern people, and who, in his speeches, says the contest is the same old contest. Jeff. Davis says he has nothing to regret. We have a hold now, and it is time for us to call back our recollections of the past. I say now that I trust our party will endeavor to select good men; that they will do the best they can, and those of this Convention, and the Republican party, who may not be satisfied with the result, I hope such will acquiesce and give us their strength and their support until the next Presidential campaign, and I trust that the candidate of the Republican party will be elected, whoever he may be, and I hope it will be Gen. Grant. The Convention is now ready for business.

NOMINATION OF A DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Mr. Fleming moved that the convention now proceed to the election of a District and an Assistant District Attorney. Carried.

Mr. McCarthy moved that the convention vote viva voce. Carried.

Col. Thomas Bayne and George R. Cochrane were nominated for District Attorney, after which the nominations were closed.

LETTER OF WITHDRAWAL.

The President then handed the Secretary a letter of withdrawal from George R. Cochrane, which is as follows:

To the President and Members of the Republican Convention, No. 3:

Gentlemen: Profoundly grateful for the generous support tendered me as a candidate for the office of District Attorney, yet convinced that my acceptance of the office would involve public duties and responsibilities for the next three years which would injuriously affect my private and professional business—already sufficiently important and lucrative to justify my undivided attention—I am constrained to overrule the wishes of my friends and the public generally, but reluctantly, but firmly, withdrawing my name from the list of candidates. I am all the more satisfied with this conclusion, because my worthy competitor, Col. Bayne, in whose favor I decline and whose nomination I trust will be unanimous, and who is so well qualified to worthily exercise the functions of the office. I may be allowed at this early date (so that other aspirants may not be disappointed as to the future) that I propose to shape my business, so as to enable me to gratify my friends, by accepting the office at the close of the next term. With sentiments of high regard, I am, gentlemen, your esteemed fellow citizen,

GEO. R. COCHRANE.

PITTSBURGH, June 6, 1871.

Mr. Eggers moved that Col. Bayne be elected by acclamation. The motion was carried and the Colonel was elected unanimously.

REMARKS OF COL. BAYNE.

The Colonel had no sooner been elected when loud calls were made for a speech, but the successful candidate was not in the room at the time. The Sheriff and Mr. Eggers were appointed a committee to secure his services, and in a few minutes they returned with Mr. Bayne, who was received with loud applause. He was then introduced by the President, and spoke as follows:

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN OF THE CONVENTION: I will not on this occasion make a speech. It is inappropriate for me to do so, but I will say that I thank you heartily for the confidence you have reposed in me, and I will say that my earnest endeavor will be to merit that confidence. I feel that I am honored and flattered by the class of men who have supported me, and I feel now that to betray a confidence that seems so unanimous and hearty, and that emanated from such a source, would show a disposition which I do not possess. I cannot but feel honored and gratified at the almost unanimous approval you have given me, and the support I have received from the Republicans of Allegheny county.

NOMINATION OF AN ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

For the office of Assistant District Attorney J. B. Flack, John Glenn and Henry Mackrell were nominated.

Mr. Fleming stated that he had been requested by Mr. Mackrell to withdraw his name as a candidate, and, on motion, the name was withdrawn.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for the two remaining candidates. While the roll was being called, Colonel Glenn withdrew from the contest, when J. B. Flack was re-nominated by acclamation. The entire roll had been called with the exception of fifteen townships, at which time the vote stood: Flack, 62; Glenn, 32.

Mr. Flack was called upon for a speech, when he responded briefly as follows:

I am under very great obligations to you for renominating me to the office of Assistant District Attorney. I shall endeavor to fill the office with the same fidelity I have done before.

The nominations for the offices in the gift of this Convention being now concluded, B. C. Christy said that the County Republican Executive Committee had authorized the respective Conventions to appoint a committee of four to meet in the Lincoln Club Room to appoint a County Executive Committee, and moved that such a committee be now appointed. The motion carried, and B. C. Christy, H. F. Eggers, John Herron, and Jos. A. Butler were appointed.

The Convention then adjourned.

Convention No. 4—State Senate and Assembly.

This Convention assembled in the Quarter Sessions Court room, and was called to order at ten o'clock by Joseph Dilworth, Esq., Chairman of the County Executive Committee, who stated that the first business in order would be the election of temporary secretaries and preparing a list of delegates.

Messrs. R. W. Morgan, W. H. Barker, R. S. McCall and George W. Atkinson were appointed temporary secretaries.

LIST OF DELEGATES.

The Secretaries then called over the several districts when the following named gentleman handed in their credentials.

Pollock; Forward, Daniel Pierce; Stowe, Joseph McElherron.

PERMANENT ORGANIZATION.

The list of delegates having been completed, the Chairman announced that the next business in order was the election of permanent officers. Messrs. J. H. Stewart, Arthur Hobson and August Ammon were nominated. Messrs. Hobson and Ammon withdrew, and Colonel Stewart was elected by acclamation.

Colonel Stewart, on taking the Chair, thanked the delegates for the honor conferred upon him, and stated that the next business in order was the election of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Charles Jeremy, Esq., and August Ammon, Esq., were elected Vice Presidents, and the gentlemen chosen temporary Secretaries were retained as permanent Secretaries.

NOMINATION OF STATE SENATORS.

The Chairman announced that the next business in order was the nomination of two candidates for the State Senate.

Hon. James L. Graham, of Allegheny, Miles S. Humphries, of South Pittsburgh, and Charles S. Fetterman were placed in nomination.

B. W. Morgan moved that the Convention vote vive voce. Adopted.

THE BALLOT.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for two candidates. The result of the vote was announced as follows:

Graham	110	Fetterman	33
Humpreys	86

Messrs. Graham and Humphreys having received the majority of the votes cast were declared to be the nominees of the Convention, and the nominations, on motion of R. W. Mackey, were made unanimous.

The Convention then adjourned.

Legislative Conventions.

FIRST CITY DISTRICT.

The Senatorial Convention having adjourned, the Legislative Convention for the First District, comprising the first nine and the Fourteenth wards of Pittsburgh, withdrew to one of the Grand Jury rooms, where an organization was affected by calling Thomas Steel to the Chair, and appointing M. F. Egan and J. A. Boothe Secretaries.

The roll was then called, and all the ten delegates answering to their names, nominations for a Representative were declared in order.

R. W. Mackey nominated James W. Taylor, of the Ninth ward.

Ralph J. Richardson nominated David L. Fleming, of the Seventh ward.

Charles Jeremy here read the following letter of declination:

PITTSBURGH, June 6, 1871.

Chairman of First District Legislative Convention:

My name having been mentioned in connection with the Republican nomination for Assembly from the First Legislative District, you will please state, for the information of the delegates, that I am not a candidate for the position at this time.

Most heartily thanking my many friends for their kindly interest in my behalf, I remain yours, &c.,

DAVID L. FLEMING.

The declination was accepted.

Mr. Taylor was then nominated by acclamation, and the convention adjourned.

SECOND CITY DISTRICT.

The delegates from the Second District also occupied a jury room, when W. H. Dennison was called to the chair, and G. W. Atkinson and John H. Stewart appointed Secretaries.

Mr. John H. Stewart nominated M. W. Edwards, and the nomination closing on his name, he was elected by acclamation, and the convention adjourned.

THIRD DISTRICT—COUNTY.

When the delegates for the city District Legislative Conventions had withdrawn from the Quarter Sessions Court room, the delegates to the Third Legislative Convention were called to order by Col. J. H. Stewart, who by request acted as temporary Chairman, and announced as the first business in order the election of a permanent Chairman.

Mr. Coursin nominated August Ammon, of East Birmingham.

Gen. Blakely nominated Arthur Hobson, of Allegheny.

Mr. Ammon declined to run.

On motion of George D. Riddle, Mr. Hobson was then elected chairman by acclamation.

The permanent organization was completed by the selection of J. Donovan, Joseph Wilson, (Snowden township) and Joseph Miller, as Vice Presidents, and W. Wilson, R. D. Jones, General Wm. Blakeley, C. L. Magee, Major George W. Murphy, W. H. Parker and R. P. McCall, Secretaries.

J. W. F. White—I move we proceed to receive nominations for members of the Assembly; that the names be arranged alphabetically, and that when arranged the convention adjourn until after dinner, so that the slips can be printed.

Mr. Riddle—I move to amend that resolution, that we proceed to the nomination and election at once. I don't see any use wasting time by adjourning over, and taking up the whole day.

A delegate—I hope that amendment will not prevail. I would like to see this business in proper order. I want to have all the names arranged so that I can see who are the candidates. I believe I have as good a right to know who is to represent me from the South Side as from the North Side, and I object to this haste.

Mr. Riddle—I don't think there is a delegate in this convention who has not made up his mind who he will vote for, and think therefore we can go ahead with the business now just as well as any other time. I don't believe in this adjourning and taking up a whole day for a little business we might as well put through at once. And we can do it here too. This adjournment is only giving a chance for "log rolling." It has done so before, and been an injury, and it will do so now. I believe we can settle, nominate and elect at once without trouble, and without log rolling, and do the business better and more to the satisfaction of the people.

Mr. J. W. F. White—I think it is a great mistake to suppose that every delegate has made up his mind, I have only done so in relation to two delegates, and we have five to select; now I want to know who are candidates; I want to have them before me in regular order; besides, I think it would be better to adjourn, because we can't get through now anyhow before dinner, and the delegates will want to adjourn then.

Several delegates expressed themselves in favor of adjourning.

Mr. Riddle—I will withdraw my motion then, seeing that the delegates desire to adjourn—although it is against my wishes in the matter.

Mr. White's resolution was then adopted.

APPORTIONING THE REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Bid Coursin, of Versailles, offered the following:

Resolved, That the Assembly ticket be apportioned as follows: One between the rivers; two to north of the rivers, and two to the South Side, and that each delegate on voting shall vote only for the number thus apportioned to each division.

A Delegate—I offer as an amendment that each delegate vote as he pleases. [Laughter.]

After some discussion, the resolution was laid on the table by a large majority vote.

VIVA VOCE VOTING.

On motion of Mr. White, it was also decided that the voting should be viva voce.

The Chair announced that nominations were in order, when a concert of voices was heard, but finally the business was reduced to a system, and each delegate presented the card of his candidate. The list when completed was read, as follows:

Nominations for Assembly—J. D. Ramsey, Second ward, Allegheny; Alex. Miller, McKeesport; H. K. Sample, Shaler township; John K. Brown, Third ward, Allegheny; S. S. D. Thompson, Fifth ward, Allegheny; Robert Dilworth, Second ward, Allegheny; F. A. M. Kreps, Fifth ward, Allegheny; Harry W. Horbach, Wilkins township; A. Harper, Richland township; J. W. Ballentine, Temperanceville; A. B. Young, Robinson township; John Gilfillin, Upper St. Clair; Wm. H. Haymaker, Patton; J. McK. Snodgrass, Braddock's; James Sanderson, Ross township; James G. Remaley, East Deer; Samuel Scott, Elizabeth; D. N. White, Sewickley; Gotleib Faas, Fourth ward, Allegheny; Samuel Robinson, East Deer.

The Convention then adjourned until one o'clock.

Afternoon Session.

At quarter past one o'clock the Convention re-assembled.

Mr. Marshall withdrew the names of James Sanderson, of Ross township.

THE STATE CONVENTION ENDORSED.

Mr. Blakely offered the following:

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the nominations for State officers made by the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg, and will use our best efforts to promote their election.

Resolved, That we also approve, endorse and adopt the platform of that Convention as expressing fully, clearly and satisfactorily the views held by Republicans of Allegheny county.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Colonel Ed. J. Allen said a resolution had been offered in the morning and voted down. As he had voted with the majority, he claimed the privilege of renewing the matter. He therefore offered a resolution that the delegates in voting vote for two candidates from the Northside, two from the Southside and one from between the rivers. The old objection to the convention was that the city could always override the several districts. Now, Pittsburgh was out, but still the same objection would hold good of Allegheny. He thought by a division of the voting this would be avoided. He represented the middle district, and as they only asked for one representative, they could not be charged with selfishness.

Mr. Marshall offered an amendment to the resolution, so as to allow one to Allegheny City, one to the districts outside on the Northside, one from between the rivers and two from the Southside.

Mr. Kerr was opposed to any such division. He was ready to do what was right and fair, but thought this would be a change which would not answer the purpose. If there was to be a division he thought the Middle District should have two representatives as each of the others had a Senator besides Representatives.

Mr. T. J. Bigham thought as this was the first convention since the new apportionment, the matter was worthy serious consideration. If the rural districts did not make some provision, perhaps the city—Allegheny City—would attempt to "run the machine." He thought some distinction should be made.

He favored a classification by which Elizabeth and the country on that side of the river would be included in the South Side.

By request, Col. Allen then reduced his proposition to writing, with the amendments, as suggested, so as to include Elizabeth in the South Side and give one representative to Allegheny City and one to the outside districts on the north side.

A delegate—I don't represent either the North or South. I come here as a delegate for this county. We all come here to vote for men, not districts. [Applause.] Let us, like Lincoln, know no North or South.

Mr. J. W. F. White—This division is about as reasonable as it could be made, but I think we should not proceed with it now. I am personally in favor of single district representation, and think the law should provide for that. But the law don't recognize any such distinction, and we come here to vote under the law. You have no right to limit me to voting for certain persons. I have a right to vote for five representatives and I think every delegate should have that privilege. You have no right to pass a resolution which will make a delegate vote any other way. [Applause.]

If the party in a former Convention had recommended this method, and had thus indorsed and authorized it before we came here, then we would have had time to consider, and it would have some shadow of authority.

We ought to nominate jointly. To introduce the proceeding proposed at this late hour would do much harm, and defeat the best aims of this Convention. [Applause.]

Mr. F. M. Magee—"I move to lay the resolution on the table.

This motion was carried by a large majority.

THE FIRST BALLOT

Was then commenced, the delegates answering to the call of the roll by the Secretaries. The result was as follows:

Brown	11	Krebs	0
Ballantine	40	Millar	42
Dilworth	38	Ramsey	2
Faas	2	Sample	31
Gilfillan	51	Scott	16
Haymaker	28	Thompson	31
Horbach	12	White	41
Harper	20	Young	33

The Chair declared that forty-four votes were necessary to nominate. Mr. Gilfillan having received more than the required number was declared nominated on the first ballot.

On motion it was decided to go into a

A SECOND BALLOTT.

Mr. B. B. Coverson moved that the names of all candidates who had not received twenty votes be stricken from the lists. Carried.

The crowd then began to gather up around the desk, and some confusion ensued, but in a few minutes order was restored and the voting was resumed.

THE LICENSE QUESTION.

While the Secretaries were footing up the tally lists, Mr. Bigham offered a resolution expressive of an opinion by the convention to the members in the Legislature, that the experiment of vesting the power of granting licenses with the County Commissioners was a failure, and the authority for granting licenses be again placed in the hands of the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions.

Mr. Bigham, in presenting the resolution, said he had drawn up the act of 1867, by which the licensing power was taken out of the hands of the Judges and vested in the Commissioners. He had, however, become satisfied that this thing was a failure. He had nothing to say of the charges against the Commissioners. He hoped the accused would be proven innocent.

But he thought the power of granting license should be given back to the Judges. He therefore moved the adoption of the resolution.

Cries of "second it," "second it," were heard.

The paper, however, was laid over until after the ballot.

The following was the result of

THE SECOND BALLOT.

Ballantine	40	*Millar	45
Dilworth	41	Ramsey	37
Haymaker	24	*Sample	48
Harper	17	Thompson	26
Young	30	*White	44

The chair announced Messrs. Millar, Sample and White as the nominees on the second ballot.

The wildest excitement now prevailed, and for a few minutes nothing could be heard but a continued roar.

When the excitement had somewhat subsided Mr. Bingham moved the unanimous nomination of Mr. Ballantine from the South Side.

Cries of "No," "no," "no."

Mr. Riddle moved that Robert Dilworth be chosen by acclamation.

Cries of "I object," "Let us vote."

Eventually comparative order was restored, and a motion to strike off the names of all but the three highest prevailed. The voting was then proceeded with.

THE THIRD BALLOT.

Ballantine	35	Dilworth	30
Ramsey	11

The Chair announced the result, and said that there yet was no choice, as no candidate had received the requisite number of votes—forty-four.

Mr. Bingham again moved the election of Colonel Ballantine, whom he characterized as a gallant soldier. Cries of "No, No."

A LITTLE SPARRING.

Mr. Blakely—I hope that won't prevail. The gentleman speaks of Colonel Ballantine being a soldier. As for that, Major Ramsey was a soldier, and as good a one as entered the field.

Mr. Riddle—When you come to that, Mr. Dilworth was as good as any of them.

Mr. Coursin—Colonel Ballantine has received a majority of the votes cast, and therefore is entitled to the nomination.

Mr. Riddle—No you can't; he hasn't recieved a majority of the whole number of delegates.

Mr. Mayer—Davy Smith went in on a majority vote three years ago and

Mr. Riddle—I don't care what Davy Smith did, a candidate must have a majority of all the delegates.

A Delegate—I move we strike off all but the two highest.

The motion was put and decided carried by the chair, when

ANOTHER SQUABBLE

ensued, some of the delegates claiming that they had not understood it, in the confusion.

The chair refused to have the vote taken again.

An appeal was taken, and the confusion increased.

The chair eventually settled the matter by recalling the decision and declaring the three candidates before the convention.

MAJOR RAMSEY WITHDRAWN.

General Blakely (standing on the chair)—Now, Mr. President, I am authorized to withdraw the name of Major Ramsey, with his thanks to his supporters, and in favor of Mr. Dilworth.

Several voices—"How's that," and hisses.

Mr. Ramsey (from the crowd)—That is a mistake; I do not authorize any such statement from Gen. Blakely.

Loud calls were now made for Ramsey, who stepped upon a chair and said: "Gentlemen, I merely withdraw from the canvass; I do not withdraw in favor of any one." [Cheers and cries of "that's right."

A delegate—I now move that we go ahead and vote for who we consider the best man.

Several voices—No more speeches; let us vote.

FOURTH BALLOT.

After several ineffectual attempts to start, the voting was finally resumed.

Ballantine	44
Dilworth	31

Before the result was announced, three cheers were given for Ballantine, following which the Chair read the vote.

A motion was made to adjourn.

The Chair asked the delegates to remember the Janitor.

Mr. Bigham attempted to call up his resolution, and amid all the confusion the Convention adjourned.

ALLEGED LARCENY.

A Butcher Robbed of $325 by Boys.

About ten o'clock yesterday morning a butcher named Henry Kreiling, doing business in the Diamond Market, was robbed of a bank-book containing $324 by a party of four boys. Kreiling was about closing up business for the day, and had counted the money and arranged it in the bank book. Just then a customer appeared at the stand, and he laid the book down and proceeded to attend his wants. That done he returned to where the book was laid, but it was gone. He at once suspected a party of boys who were loitering about the stand during the time the money was being counted, and hastening to the Mayor's office, made information against four of them. Their names are as follows: Edward Hooper, Joan Burke, Cornelius O'Brien and John Maloy. Warrants were immediately issued and the police succeded in arresting Hooper. He acknowledged that he was with the crowd that took the money, and said that they gave him $2 50; that they buried the balance, but subsequently removed it, and he was unable to tell where it had been placed. The other lads have not yet been arrested; neither has any of the money been recovered.

NEW SAVINGS BANK.

Election of a Board of Directors.

At a meeting of stockholders held yesterday, at Central Hotel, Hon. Jared M. Brush being called to the Chair and Thomas E. Tack, Secretary, the call for the meeting was read by the Chairman. On motion of Andrew Lyons a committee of three was appointed to suggest names for a Board of Directors, and Dr. Geo. H. Keyser, Major J. M. Bell, and W. H. Cluley, Esqs., were appointed on the committee, and the following names were reported by the committee: N. P. Sawyer, W. H. Sims, Theodore E. Tack, William Bissel, J. M. C. Creighton, Robert Phillips, W. A. Tomlinson, J. H. Page, Jr., George C. Rice and Jacob Reese.

On motion, the report of the committee was approved.

Mr. Bissell moved that the Secretary be empowered to cast a vote for directors, as suggested by the committee, which motion was carried, and the gentlemen reported by the committee for directors were elected.

The President stated that it would be in order to give the new bank a name, and on motion it was resolved to call it the United Savings Bank.

On motion, adjourned.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—For the benefit of Grace Church, Mt. Washington, will open Wednesday, June 7, 1871, at 2 o'clock P. M. It will continue throughout the afternoon and evening of to-day, Thursday and Friday. The festival will be held in the Sunday School room of the church within four squares of the Incline Plane. The friends of the church and the public generally are invited. This will be a most pleasant place to spend an evening this warm weather, and the attractions will be prodigious.

Boots and Shoes.

It may not be generally known that the shoe in which that celebrated old lady lived "who had so many children she didn't know what to do," was purchased by her at a very moderate figure from W. T. Wiley, of the Diamond Front Shoe Store, No. 63 Fifth avenue. †

WHEN the communists destroyed the palace of the Tuileries, the loss which grieved the Parisians most was the destruction, among costly works of art and beauty, of Pier, Dannals & Co.'s cream ale.

NOTICE

TO

Steamboat Captains, Owners of Vessels, &c.

TAKE NOTICE—That I have erected, and am now operating, A WIRE FERRY across the Ohio river at Smith's Ferry, Beaver county, Pa. The following letter from Daniel Daugherty, Esq., an Engineer of New Brighton, Pa., gives some particulars touching this Ferry that will be interesting to Steamboatmen and others concerned.
JESSE SMITH.

"NEW BRIGHTON, PA., May 30, 1871.

DEAR SIR: Jesse Smith, Esq., of Smith's Ferry, Beaver county, Pa., who has heretofore operated a Ferry across the Ohio river, at that place, has recently been making a change in the motive power. For the purpose of running the new ferry he has stretched an iron cable across the river. This cable is one and one-half inches in diameter, and is anchored on the right bank in rock, one hundred and six feet above high water mark, or the flood of 1852; and one hundred and forty-six feet above low water mark of Septem ber 10, 1838. On the left bank it is supported by a tower fifty-one feet, and six inches high, the cable being at that point one hundred and two feet and six inches above high-water mark; the length of the cable between the points mentioned is 1820 feet, and it is fifty-seven feet and six inches above high-water mark at the lowest point, or over one hundred feet above low water mark—there being a sag of 45 feet at the lowest point of the cable. The whole length of the wire is 2,100 feet, and is made of steel manufactured by John Roebling's Sons, Trenton, New Jersey, and weighs three pounds to the foot. The Hoisting Apparatus was constructed by A. Hartupee, of Pittsburgh. The Boat was built by Scott, Boyle & Co., and is of the following dimensions: Length 75, width 16 feet, and depth 3 feet, and draws but 7 inches of water light."

TO DROVERS, STOCK DEALERS, TEAMSTERS, &C.

The undersigned is now operating a Wire Ferry on the Ohio river, between Smith's Ferry and Georgetown, and is prepared to carry Passengers, Stock of all kinds, Teams, &c., at the customary prices.

Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore bestowed, he respectfully asks for a continuance of the same.

ROBERT TOOMBS appears on the surface just to say this: "When you can tear the live thunder from its home in the burning ether, and bind it a captive at the footstool of tyranny, then, and not till then, will I accept the situation." Now, there would not be much consequence attached to the utterance of Mr. TOOMBS, but for the fact that so many accept them as their confession of faith. While now and then are to be found dissenters from DAVIS, STEPHENS, TOOMBS and company, the fact is, that after all they are the real leaders of Southern Democratic sentiment.

THE names of the candidates put in nomination for the local offices by the several conventions yesterday will be found in their proper places. While in some cases the nominations were attended with very little interest, others, notably that of Commissioner and one or two members of the Assembly, were made after a struggle. In every instance, however, we believe, the decision was promptly concurred in. The candidates as a general thing are well known to the Republican voters and the public at large, and we see no reason to fear that the ticket as a whole will not receive the party vote. The nominees for the Assembly, with the exception of Messrs. WHITE and TAYLOR, are new men. For the Senate, Messrs. GRAHAM and HUMPHREYS have been so long before the county as to be known to nearly every voter. While in some respects the ticket might be better, it is probably in character and capacity fully equal to the average, and is likely to give good satisfaction.

IN the death of Count de GASPARIN, who died a few days ago at Geneva, Switzerland, the United States loses an able and unflinching friend, and the world an eloquent advocate of civil and religious liberty. He was especially attached to this country, and during the civil war, the progress of which he watched with the profoundest interest, he was in constant correspondence with President LINCOLN, of whom he was a great admirer. He wrote a number of interesting and important works on questions of political and moral economy, but is best known in the United States by his able vindication of its cause during the war, in his "Uprising of a Great People, "The United States in 1861," and "America before Europe." These were of very great service to the country, and placed it under national obligations to him. Living, he was a conspicuous champion of the rights and hopes of humanity, and dying he has left no line which any one could wish to blot.

WE notice that a large number of Southern journals are beginning to take wider views of agriculture than those which have hitherto obtained in the cotton growing States. Carefully prepared estimates show that in the eight States principally devoted to the cultivation of that staple, the falling off of cotton acreage amounts to 932,000 acres, or twelve per cent., as compared with the area under cultivation last year, while the use of fertilizers is said to have decreased from sixty to eighty per cent. This retrenchment is in consequence of the fact that, notwithstanding the immense crop of last year, it hardly paid the cost of producing it. The impression seems to be gaining ground that moderate crops of cotton, with large yields of corn and other staples, is the proper policy to be adopted. It is argued that a couple of million of bales of cotton will bring as much money to the South as four millions, since the principle of supply and demand regulates the price, while the staple is an indispensable element of modern civilization. There is some force in this argument. Hitherto large cotton crops have been raised, corn and grain crops have been neglected, while year after year the planters grew more impoverished in their unremitting labor of raising one crop with which to purchase another. The system of small plantations and diversified industry is the true policy for the South to pursue, if it wishes permanently to prosper and become rich.

HONOR to whom honor is due. We have criticised with some severity such portions of the platform recently laid down by the Democracy of Ohio, as were in conflict with the facts of history and the deductions of logic, but there is one plank in it which receives our hearty and unqualified approval and support. We allude to the eleventh resolution, which declares in favor of strict economy, "and the speedy trial, conviction and punishment of the thieves who have stolen the taxes paid by the people." Whilst not so stated in words, there can be no reasonable doubt that this resolution is aimed directly at Tammany, with whose characteristics the description tallies to the minutest particulars. We therefore take it for granted that in the estimation of the Democracy of Ohio HOFFMAN is not the man for the times. TWEED, SWEENY, CONNOLLY and company had also better take notice of this indictment, and mend their ways accordingly: because, when a grand jury composed of members of their own party, and not having direct jurisdiction in the premises, are compelled out of a sense of self-respect to present them to the country as incorrigible criminals, the matter assumes a very serious complexion indeed, and indicates how grievous and manifold have been their offenses. We like to read such clear and ringing utterances of reprobation against evil doers, no matter from what source they come, and, therefore, we take pleasure in commending this resolution, which has a good tone, and would have a still better one if it did not look so much like Satan rebuking sin.

"YOU may break, you may shatter the vase if you will, but the scent of the roses will cling to it still." A few months ago it seemed as if the nineteenth century had really dawned upon Virginia, and that into whatever errors of doctrine and practice it had fallen in the past, it purposed for the future to put itself en rapport with the ideas of modern times, instead of continuing to hug its dreamy delusions, and trying to play the role of mother of States. At that time we noted in commendatory phrase the brave and liberal utterances of the Richmond Enquirer, with reference to the proposition of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to assist in opening up the highways and resources of the Old Commonwealth, showing, by way of answer to the objections urged against granting charters to foreign corporations, that the charters previously granted to similar enterprises were only to Southern names, nearly all the capital having been furnished by Northern men. It looked as if the Enquirer had caught the splendid contagion of conquering energy which has achieved the marvels of the age, and that we were to find in it a friend and ally of all causes and movements which have for their objects the development of the earth, and of that manhood which controls it, and the plucking up by the roots of the bitter prejudices which have hindered progress in the past. But this was too good to last. We have for some time noticed in its columns a growing yearning after the flesh-pots of that Egyptian captivity out of which we hoped it had emerged forever, and lately it has quite turned back from the brave march on which it set out so vigorously and promisingly a short time ago. A week or two since an election was held in Virginia, at which, it appears, the votes of a number of negroes were refused by the Democratic Commissioners of Election, upon the alleged grounds that they had not been previously registered. For this refusal the Commissioners have now been arrested under the enforcement act of Congress, upon the affidavits of the negroes that they were improperly refused registration, and that their ballots were rejected at the polls. This is the occasion of the Enquirer's vexation and grief. It moodily complains that the hand of the Government "intervenes in every matter of local administration," and that, what with civil rights bills, enforcement laws and Ku-Klux acts, no margin of authority is left to the States in the matter of its "Cursed be Canaan" proclivities and indulgences. We are very sorry that the Enquirer is in so pitiful a plight, and that the circumstances of the case are so disheartening, but we really do not see how they are to be improved upon, except by conforming the laws of the State to the supreme law, and bringing the action of its officers into correspondence with the demands of justice and fair play. It is doubtless very disagreeable for a sovereign State to be watched at every turn, and so, for that matter, it must be to a housebreaker. But suppose that Virginia, instead of railing against the espionage of the federal government, try the plan of conducting herself agreeably to good morals and manners, and thus render all surveillance unnecessary. It will be found much the safest and cheapest way of getting rid of the annoyance and persecution of which it complains, and besides, its moral effect will be so much better.

THE CHENEY CASE.

An affair that produces so great and intense a sensation as the CHENEY case the people will talk about. Even outsiders, persons unconnected with either the Episcopal or any other Christian sect, can not well help discussing the merits of the controversy and its prominent contestants. The secular newspaper also, having for its province quicquid agunt homines, may with difficulty refrain from making its appeal to public opinion in behalf of one or the other of the parties at war, even if it hesitates to attempt an elucidation of the deeper mysteries involved in the subject. The CHENEY case is, however, a strictly denominational or sectarian controversy, regarding which a sentiment of propriety and fairness obviously seems to impose a certain reserve upon all those whose ecclesiastical or non-ecclesiastical relations exempt them from immediate concern in its decision, or in its practical consequences. While the affair was a case before the civil court of Illinois for adjudication, it was a matter of direct interest to all who appreciated the value and significance of our grand system of voluntaryism. If a civil Judge could interpose to arrest the action of an ecclesiastical court in the manner sanctioned by Judge JAMISON, church discipline ceased to be possible, or rather the separation of church and state ceased to be a feature of American institutions. When the decision alluded to had been reversed by the Supreme Court, the CHENEY case was relegated within the limits of the church to which it belonged, and any concern taken in its progress by non-Episcopalians, ceased to rest upon any more solid or substantial grounds than those of mere human sympathy with fellow mortals tossed by the violence of a storm.

Some people apparently need to be informed that rebellion is not meritorious in itself. The man who resists ecclesiastical as well as civil authority does so at his own peril. If he assumes the attitude of revolt against a constituted ruler for sufficient reasons, he is entitled to admiration and applause on the very ground of the immense weight of opinion and power which he undertakes to confront and the consequent peril which he incurs. But the validity of the reasons upon which he acts is the important element in the estimate of which he becomes worthy. In order to form a just judgment concerning Mr. CHENEY's position several considerations must be weighed which are quite imponderable by any scales possessed by a good many of those who applaud as well as those who blame him. Perhaps quite as much may be said regarding the position of Bishop WHITEHOUSE. In the persons of these two clergymen two old theological schools have come into collision and conflict. On the one hand, Bishop WHITEHOUSE, relying upon the Holy Scriptures as interpreted by illustrious divines in almost every century since the time of Christ, believes in the church as a divine organization invested with powers of a supernatural character. He believes that its ministers are a holy priesthood clothed with transcendent functions, and that its sacraments possess an efficacious virtue not the less wonderful or potential because unattended by visible manifestations. As a bishop he believes himself one of the successors of the apostles, and the administrator of an authority that may not be gainsaid or resisted without sin. In the words of the Prayer Book and the rubrics he believes that the very mind of the church and its Divine Head is expressed, and that no priest is at liberty to either disbelieve or neglect to use those words in fulfiling the ministry of his office. Mr. CHENEY, or at least his school, on the other hand, also relying upon the Holy Scriptures, as intreperted by famous divines, rejects sacerdotalism and sacramentalism, reduces the eucharist to a mere commemorative rite, and supersedes baptismal regeneration by the theory of conversion. He "vilipends apostolical succession and every claim not derived from the immediate operations of the Spirit." In his estimation church authority carries little or no weight as opposed to the letter of the Bible. Quite likely he approved of his friend Mr. TYNG on last Sunday evening when that zealous clergyman spoke of the church as capable of performing the part of Anti-Christ. By the way, a scoffer might with some show of reason think that an institution susceptible of such sudden perversion, capable of taking up a role so antagonistic to its own cannot be much depended upon.

Though baptismal regeneration is apparently the only matter of difficulty between the bishop and the rector, and the point touching which the latter has become amenable to discipline, yet the controversy is broader. The whole subject of ecclesiastical order and discipline, of church or no church, doubtless seems to the bishop to be involved, while to Mr. CHENEY the validity and all sufficiency of the Scriptures and the interest of freedom of conscience appear to be imperilled and to need his championship. From the promptitude with which Mr. TYNG has hastened to render Mr. CHENEY his sympathy and support, it would seem that he regards the Chicago case as of the same general character as the New York case in which he was himself involved some years ago. In each instance individual will and judgment are arrayed against the authority and standards of the Church. Sympathizing fully with neither party in either controversy, the outsider cannot but wonder that men gifted with such extreme tenderness of conscience, as Messrs. CHENEY and TYNG are willing to remain connected with a Church in which they are exposed to so many hardships and restrictions. Remaining in the Church, it would appear their duty to take advantage of the liberality which notoriously characterizes its administration, to practice that reserve and those harmless subterfuges by which it is possible to avoid offending authority, on the one hand, and to retain conscience inviolate on the other.

THE Cincinnati Gazette criticises HORACE GREELEY for saying that Texas is a desirable State to live in, and that life and property are safe there; quoting from a report of General HOWARD made three years ago, in relation to the numerous outrages and violations of law there committed. The Gazette thinks that the "Presidential worm has taken hold of Mr. GREELEY, and that a desire for popularity and a weakness to flattery have blinded his eyes and twisted his judgment." With the question of Mr. GREELEY's aspirations for the Presidency, or whether his ambition has lent a roseate color to his Texas views, we have nothing to do, but we are inclined to the belief that in the matter under reference he is more nearly right than our contemporary. It is true that at the date mentioned the State of Texas was overrun by a set of murderous desperadoes, but it is also true that for more than a year past she has been actively engaged in bringing them to justice. Between the months of last July and December, nearly a thousand of these criminals were arrested and committed for trial, and the commendable work has been prosecuted in an equally vigorous and satisfactory manner ever since. The consequence is that the State is now pervaded with a very general feeling of security, and that capital, enterprise and labor are flowing into it from all quarters. The prosperity of the State is proof of its peacefulness, and we cannot see how any possible good can arise from perpetually recurring to the dead, irreparable past. The question is not how many law-breakers had Texas in 1868, but how many law-abiders has she now? As fast as the people of the South outgrow their narrow bigotries and selfish passions, let us try to forget the mischiefs and miseries which came of them. Let us have peace.

READERS will pardon us for once more referring to the case of General SHERIDAN and the Germans, or rather of General SHERIDAN and the newspapers. The General is only one of many public men who have lately suffered either in reputation or in peace of mind, or in both, through unlicensed attempts to publish remarks made by them in the intercourse of private life. As the opportunity is presented, it is worth while, in one instance at least, to establish the reality of the offense alleged. In a recent number of the Illinois Staatszeitung, a reporter gives a full account of a conversation which he lately held with General SHERIDAN at his headquarters in Chicago, and which he reported with the General's express sanction. Asked whether he had heard how much had been said and written among the Germans concerning his reported remarks about King WILLIAM, the princes, &c., SHERIDAN answered that he had heard of these things, but had not contradicted them, because he could not notice everything published to his injury in the newspapers, and besides, he thought that these statements were so manifestly false that nobody would believe them. In Europe he was received, he remarked, with such kindness on all sides, that, for this reason alone, if for no other, he would not have used the language ascribed to him. But in fact the statements in question did not express his views regarding either the operations of the war or the commanders of the armies. Instead of being always in the rear, the Crown Prince was always where he ought to be in battle, when necessary, before the front. "I have seen him even amidst a shower of balls." As for Prince CARL whom he was represented as calling a charlatan, he had never even seen him, and had formed no judgement of his merits. King WILLIAM is a fine old gentleman and a good general, possessing personal courage and bravery in an extraordinary measure. "At Gravelotte I saw him in the thickest of the fire." So far from being a fool under BISMARCK's ferule, he has a decided and firm will of his own which he maintains in spite of the Chancellor. BISMARCK is by far the greatest man in Europe, and is besides a first rate soldier. With reference to the statement of remarks which he should have made to Secretary BOUTWELL, SHERIDAN denies that he ever talked with the Secretary on these subjects, though he does not believe that Mr. BOUTWELL is responsible for the falsehood circulated in his name. "As already said, propriety, if nothing else, would have prevented me from saying anything of the kind, after the very friendly reception I met with at the German headquarters."

Some may think we attach too much importance and give too much space to the subject. But to say nothing of justice to SHERIDAN, it is a matter of real importance to show that a gentleman occupying so high a position, is not so deficient in either sense or delicacy as many newspapers have thoughtlessly or recklessly represented the General to be. Example teaches.

A FEW months ago we pointed out certain reprehensible English practices, some of them winked at, and others actually indulged in, which, to our mind, were quite incompatible with the eloquent poetical outburst of her COWPER, that "slaves cannot breathe in England." Among the citations which we gave in proof to the contrary, was, that slavery flourished by British permission in the colony of Queensland, the institution being kept up by the kidnapping of the neighboring islanders. This looked like slavery of a pretty bad kind, and did not at all comport with the claims of England as the freest and most unselfish country on the face of the earth. It now seems that, notwithstanding the authority which that country assumes to exercise over it, the slave trade on the East coast of Africa is in a very flourishing condition, rendered so by the connivance and complicity of the British Government. It appears that, in a treaty with the Sultan, England bound herself not to interfere with domestic slavery, thus leaving the matter substantially in the hands of SYED MAJID, whose sovereignty extends over several hundred miles of coast, and protects slavers so that they can be sure of running four out of every five cargoes. Upon the sale of these slaves a royalty of two dollars a head is paid to the Sultan, which contributes a considerable sum to his exchequer. It is stated that the atrocities committed in the capture and coastward march of these victims exceed the horrors of the middle passage, and that from two to three hundred thousand slaves are thus annually slaughtered. It is further stated that large tracts of country, once well peopled, have been completely depopulated by the horrible traffic. SYED MAJID being the creature of England's power, the remedy for the wrong rests with her, and therefore the responsibility for its continuance. It is a good thing for a country to be anti-slavery in principle—when its practice accords with its professions. But—

PERSONAL.

Professors C. F. Hartt, Morris and Putnam, with a number of students from Cornell University, are at Scranton, Pennsylvania, on a geological expedition. They have been visiting the various mines in that vicinity, and have secured some very fine specimens. They will remain there for some time, collecting and investigating the character of the mines, in order to enrich the museum of the University and to give instruction to the class in geology.

Victor Emanuel, though King of a very poor country, financially speaking, is represented to be one of the richest crown-wearers in Europe. He is said to have a fortune of at least 100,000,000 of lire ($20,000,000). Among other things, he is the owner of some twenty splendid palaces, and nearly seven hundred blooded horses.

Princess Louise and the Marquis of Lorne, while upon their bridal tour upon the Continent, traveled under the name of Lord and Lady Sundridge, and as such were sojourning at the Lake of Como.

Secretary Seward, old and infirm as he is, is now making the grandest trip that it is possible to make, and reflecting credit upon his country wherever he goes. He has been to Alaska. He has visited Mexico. He was among the first passengers by the overland route to California. Lately he was in China. Then he was in Japan. Recently he turned up in Bombay, India, where he has been honored with a reception by the Governor General and a grand dinner by the Byculla club.

Among the Princesses of Europe, the Empress of Russia and the Princess Frederick Charles are the best painters, the Princess of Wales the best performer on the piano, the Queen of Holland the best poet and author, the Empress of Germany the best conversationalist, the Empress of Austria the best looking lady, and the Queen of Denmark the best housewife.

An effort has been made to dispose of, for the benefit of Mrs. Audubon, who is greatly in need, the magnificent plates of the great naturalist's work, and the hope was entertained that they would be secured by some public institution. It is stated that Hon. W. Dodge, learning of the need of the worthy widow, came forward and bought the plates with the intention of holding them until some of the great literary bodies of the country should be ready to purchase them.

THE proposition to build a monument to the inventor of anæsthetic preparations recalls a painful episode. A correspondent of the Rochester Chronicle, writing from New York city, says that about twenty years ago he met in that city Dr. Wells, of Hartford, who was there on business in connection with his recent discovery of chloroform, which was then attracting great notice. After finishing the duties of the day he walked out in the evening to see New York by gas light, and indulged too freely in strong drink. By midnight he was arrested for disorderly conduct and locked up in the tombs. He recovered his senses before daylight and found himself the inmate of a cell. The reaction was so great that he at once determined to commit suicide. He opened an artery in one of his legs and then, having a vial of chloroform in his pocket, he took enough to stupefy his frame. In a few hours he was found stiff and cold and weltering in his blood. Such was the end of one of the greatest benefactors of his race. The remains were buried in Hartford, where it is now proposed to honor his memomory with a monument.

THE Louisville Commercial says that within the past four months it has reported "the deaths of eight little children who were carried to untimely graves, after terrible suffering, from the use of concentrated lye." We are very sorry for this mortality, and we hope that the parents of other children will take all possible precautions to prevent their offspring from having access to the Louisville newspapers. Was it the Ledger, or the Courier-Journal, which killed the innocent darlings?

THE manufacture of spool cotton was commenced in the United States in 1854, at Willimantic, Conn. In 1863 the Hadley Company began in the Holyoke valley, and in less than eighteen months forced a revolution in the character of the cotton sold, by the superiority of the article they produced. Up to 1865 the finest grades of English six-cord spool were to No. 36. The perfection of the American article compelled makers to run their six-cord cottons up to No. 100. And now America beats the world in a nine-cord cotton in the high numbers.

THE Philadelphia Day accounts in this wise for something about which not long since our people had their curiosity considerably excited: "A double baby is offered for exhibition hereabouts. It is said to be a couple of unfortunate infants strapped together by a cruel process, the cruelty being concealed by an ingenious arrangement of bandages and garments.

THE TICKET.

A Few Words About the Nominees.

The Republican ticket for Allegheny county is now before the public, and each voter can judge of its merits for himself. Before speaking of the candidates (as the custom of saying something in regard to them has come down from immemorial time), we desire to express our satisfaction with the manner in which the nominations were made—the plan of holding separate conventions for the principal offices to be filled. So long as the delegate system exists, this plan should be followed, as it gives the voters a fairer chance to represent their wishes, and removes from the delegates, in a large degree, both the power and the temptation to trade and barter. The good results of this change were fully exemplified in the Convention called to nominate a Commissioner, where, notwithstanding the closeness of the contest, there was a square, honest vote, as each delegate was untrammelled by any other interest, and carried out the wishes of his constituents. As to the nominees:

Of the candidates for State Senate, Messrs. Graham and Humphreys, we need say but little, so well are these gentlemen known to our people, each having served a number of years in Harrisburg, and each enjoying a State reputation of no mean limit.

Of the Assembly ticket, Hon. David N. White and James Taylor have been members for several terms. John Gilfillan and Alexander Miller served in the same capacity some years ago, while Messrs. Edwards, Ballantine and Sample are new men. The first four may justly be classed as tried men. Of Mr. Edwards we must say that, as a prominent member of our City Councils for several years past, he has become thoroughly familiar with the wants and interests of the city, and has the intelligence, judgment and probity necessary to make a good legislator. He possesses positive qualities, cannot be swayed from what he conceives to be the right course, and has the courage to say and vote so. Mr. Ballantine graduated some ten years since, at Jefferson College, entered the army as a captain, and was promoted to colonel. His military record is without a stain. He is engaged at present in oil refining, in Temperanceville. Mr. Sample is a young man of good ability, but has not yet filled any public position. He served in a subordinate capacity, at Harrisburg, for some time, and is familiar with the routine of business there. On the whole, the Legislative ticket is one which commends itself to the Republicans of the county, as it was formed without going through the "moulds" usually employed on such occasions. It is noticeable that Allegheny city is not represented on the Assembly ticket, which result was brought about by her delegates asking too much. In the effort to carry two candidates, both were defeated. But one candidate from the city developed strength enough in the country districts to carry him through with the Allegheny vote, which was, unfortunately for them, given to the weaker man.

Colonel Bayne, the candidate for District Attorney, is a criminal lawyer of good ability, a fair speaker, and will fill the office creditably. He has done a great deal of "stumping" for the party, and aside from his military record has strong claims for the position. His assistant, Mr. Flack, has been complimented with a renomination; and the indorsement is deserved, since he is really an efficient officer.

For County Commissioner, Joseph Dilworth, Esq., received the nomination after a very close contest. It is due to him to say, however, that he did not employ the usual machinery which politicians deem necessary to success. The work was not done by himself, but by his friends, and is a significant expression of public sentiment, in view of his connection with the recent revolution wrought in the Commissioners' office. It is also due to Mr. Dilworth to state that he does not seek the office for the emoluments, but solely with a desire to have the license laws enforced, and the corruption in connection therewith abolished.

Mr. Warner, the nominee for County Controller, is a gentleman of ability and integrity. He has only to follow in the footsteps of his worthy predecessor, Mr. Lambert, and, like him, the people will continue him in office until he refuses to serve them longer.

Captain Kilgore, for Treasurer, Mr. Clugston for Surveyor, and Mr. Murray for Poor Director, will each be warmly indorsed by the people.

GENERAL AND PARTICULAR.

A Portland, Maine, paper tells how an "expert" identified a forged signature. The witness testified that his name as appearing to one of a number of notes was a forgery, while the ablest experts declared that they could see no difference in the signatures. The witness persisted that the one he designated was a forgery. Careful tests were applied, the notes were shuffled and dealt to him, but he instantly picked out the fraudulent paper. The notes were then overlaid in such manner as to show only the attested names, and without a moment's hesitation he drew out the same paper. Every test which the ingenuity of the lawyers could devise was applied, with the same result, and the case went to the jury. After the case was closed one of the counsels gave the papers a careful examination, when it was found that the disowned signature had been punctured with a pin between the letters, but the mark was so exceedingly small that it had escaped a score of prying eyes; yet to the witness' experienced vision it was "plain as a pike staff."

It is well known that the icebergs cool the water around them to a very considerable distance. An American gentleman named Dion has made this fact the foundation of an invention to protect vessels against collision with icebergs. He proposes to place on the bottom of steamers or other vessels an apparatus so arranged as to sound an alarm on the instant a ship's keel enters a stratum of cold water.

The Gaines case is again on trial in New Orleans. A proceeding was a long time since commenced in the District Court of that city to annul the judgment rendered by that tribunal probating a lost will in favor of Mrs. Gaines and recognizing her heirship to the Clark property, in the possession of the city. It was upon this will that the judgments of the United States Court in favor of Mrs. Gaines are based, and the suit to set aside these judgments necessarily involves a great deal of technical disputation. A New Orleans paper says the indefatigable lady who for over forty years has prosecuted her claims to the property of Daniel Clark is still on hand, battling for her rights with undiminished vigor and pertinacity. She and her suit have survived several generations of lawyers and judges.

A New York letter says: It looks as if the stampede to the watering places was beginning earlier this season than usual. An immense number of three-story traveling trunks went up on the North river boats this morning, and the express trains on the Hudson and Central, later in the day, were similarly freighted. The Eastern boats this evening have four or five hundred bound for Newport. The rush to Long Branch and other near-by resorts will follow next, if it is not already begun.

IN view of the immense amount of mischief which Jeff. Davis is working in the Democratic camp by his injudicious harrangues, and also in view of the fact that the Democratic press of the North, while intensely chagrined at his indiscretion, is yet afraid to speak out strongly in direct words of denunciation, lest it should appear to be unmindful of his past services, we respectfully place the following pithy stanza at their service, for use when their hearts are full, as a medium whereby they may relieve their pent-up feelings, and still avoid original censure of their great "impracticable" leader. The verse is of negro origin, and dates from an early day in the war of the rebellion:

"If de debbile do not catch
Jeff Davis, dat Confederate wretch,
And roast and frigazee dat rebble,
What's de use ob any debbile?"

If it should be objected to on account of its authorship, let it be remembered that Esop was also a slave, and that some of the best things in literature have sprung up out of lowliest sources. The special value of these lines consist, however, in their touching sincerity and their subject's unquestionable desert. We should like to see them set to music and sung as a Democratic campaign song. It would doubtless create a furore.

Let Common Sense Decide.

What is the rational mode of procedure in cases of general debility and nervous prostration? Does not reason tell us that judicious stimulation is required. To resort to violent purgation in such a case is as absurd as it would be to bleed a starving man. Yet it is done every day. Yes, this stupid and unphilosophical practice is continued in the teeth of the great fact that physical weakness, with all the nervous disturbances that accompany it, is more certainly and rapidly relieved by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters than by any other medicine at present known. It is true that general debility is often attended with torpidity or irregularity of the bowels, and that this symptom must not be overlooked. But while the discharge of the waste matter of the system is expedited or regulated, its vigor must be recruited. The Bitters do both. They combine aperient and antibilious properties, with extraordinary tonic power. Even while removing obstructions from the bowels, they tone and invigorate those organs. Through the stomach, upon which the great vegetable specific acts directly it gives a healthy and permanent impetus to every enfeebled function. Digestion is facilitated, the faltering circulation regulated, the blood reinforced with a new accession of the alimentary principle, the nerves braced, and all the dormant powers of the system roused into healthy action; not spasmodically, as would be the case if a mere stimulant were administered, but for a continuance. It is in this way that such extraordinary changes are wrought in the condition of the feeble, emaciated and nervous invalids by the use of this wonderful corrective, alterative and tonic. Let common sense decide between such a preparation and a prostrating cathartic supplemented by a poisonous, astringent like strychnine or quinia.

SEVEN GOOD REASONS WHY
The Duquesne Cook Stove
IS THE BEST.
It NEVER FAILS to Bake and Roast satisfactorily.
It is very ECONOMICAL in Fuel.
It has a LARGER OVEN than any other Stove.
It is VERY HEAVY and will last a lifetime.
It COSTS LESS FOR REPAIRS than any other Stove.
It has a patent BALED ASH PAN and is entirely anti-dust.
It PLEASES every person who has it in use.
Don't fail to see it before purchasing. Manufactured and for sale by
D. De HAVEN & SONS,
No. 22 Wood Street.

FINANCE AND TRADE

TUESDAY EVENING, June 6, 1871.

The demand for money to-day seemed brisker, but the banks as well as discount places generally have ample means to meet any increased demand that may come from good borrowers.

—Local stocks are quiet but firm, and whenever any of our sound dividend class are offered, ready takers are quick to buy them.

—Third National Bank was sold last evening by A. McIlwaine, auctioneer, at his stock sales rooms, 106 Smithfield street, for $134.

—Messrs. Ira B. McVay & Co. report the following quotations of Government bonds in New York to-day, as furnished them by Jay Cooke & Co., their correspondents:

	Morning.	Clos'g.
U. S. Bonds of 1881	117⅜	117⅜
U. S. Bonds of 1862	111⅞	112
U. S. Bonds of 1864	111⅜	111½
U. S. Bonds of 1865	111⅜	111⅜
U. S. Bonds of 1865 (new)	114¼	114⅜
U. S. Bonds of 1867	114¼	114⅜
U. S. Bonds of 1868	114⅛	114¼
10-40s	109⅞	110
Gold	112½	112⅝

—James T. Brady & Co., corner of Fourth avenue and Wood street, quote United States securities in New York to-day as follows:

Gold	112⅝
United States 6s of 1881	117½
United States 5-20s of 1862	112
United States 5-20s of 1864	111⅞
United States 5-20s of 1865	111⅞
United States 10-40s	110
United States 5-20s, January and July, 1865	114¼
United States 5-20s, January and July, 1867	114⅜
United States 5-20s, January and July, 1868	114⅜
Union Pacific Railroad	92⅛

—The Wall street markets suddenly changed to the bull side to-day, and higher prices in some of the favorites were established than has existed during the present year. The New York Evening Post says: Lake Shore and Rock Island are strong on the purchases of those sharing the confidence of the respective Boards of management, while the remainder of the list is dull and in the main heavy. Large scrip dividends are looked for at an early day on Lake Shore and Rock Island, and in regard to the future of the general market the question is whether these two stocks will carry the remainder of the list up, or whether the remainder of the list will drag these two stocks down. The "short" interest has been increased within the last two weeks considerably, and several wealthy operators and houses, who are able to pay their losses, are known to be heavily "short."

—The Tribune's Washington special says: The report that the Attorney General will decline to recommend an appeal or compromise in the case of the New York Central scrip dividend tax is incorrect. The case has not been submitted to the Attorney General, but to the Solicitor of the Treasury Department, and he will not act on it until his return from California. The New York Central Railroad Company has secured the services of Caleb Cushing to argue the appeal, and he has applied to Commissioner Pleasanton for certain papers filed with him by the counsel of the road. Mr. Pleasanton has refused to give these up, on the ground that upon them he based his decision, and that public safety requires him to retain possession of them. If ordered by the court to produce them he will allow them to be used in evidence, without, however, constructively going out of his possession. The plea of the Railroad Company, that they never had the money on which the tax is levied, and that there is no longer any New York Central Railroad, that corporation having been consolidated with the Hudson river, it is not considered by good lawyers to be valid, especially as the resolution declaring the dividend admitted that it was made from surplus earnings, and no consolidation can deprive the Government of its dues. The Collector has been ordered to collect the tax immediately, and if there is any delay in paying it, Commissioner Pleasanton will seize the property of the company and sell it according to law.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
TUESDAY, June 6, 1871.

REMARKS—The weather continues excessively warm, which has a deleterious effect upon trade generally. The inconveniences of heat, fear of sunstrokes and the general lassitude produced by the summer solstace will have its effect upon the best of men. Hence they prefer to repose securely in shady nooks to perambulating scorching streets in search of bargains. But all are not of this class. Notwithstanding the heat of the day purchasers were upon the streets, and dealers report a heavy trade. With regard to prices all we have to say that they are uniform and differ little from those of the past week. All leading staple articles are unchanged, whilst ephemeral products change with the hour and the day. The market is abundantly supplied with all sorts and varieties of fruits and vegetables from home and abroad. On the whole, we are well situated, and those who can afford it can enjoy themselves to their heart's content.

Following are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise noted.

ASHES—We are reported sales at the following: Soda ash common 4⅛@4¼c; refined 4½@4¾c; potash 7¼@7½c; pearls 9@9¼c ₩ lb.

APPLES—Few old apples on the market and the new crop has not put in an appearance, but will be here ere long. Sales old made at $7@8 ₩ bbl.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales from store at 65@75c ₩ gallon.

BEANS—Small white navy at 2 00 per bush. Supply light.

BUTTER—The supply has fallen off, though the market is still dull. We continue to quote: Prime to choice at 15@16c per lb; fair to good 12@14c.

BROOM CORN—Sales at 5@6c ₩ lb, as per quality.

BEESWAX—Beeswax has advanced, and we quote sales at 30@35c ₩ lb.

BAKING POWDER—There is quite an active demand, and we are reported sales as follows: ¼-lb Banner cans ₩ doz, $1 75; ½-lb cans, $3 25; 1-lb cans, $6; 5-lb cans, $30.

CANDLES—Mould 12c; Star, full weight, 19c; short weight 17c; stearine 19½c ₩ lb.

CONCENTRATED LYE—There is a better inquiry and we are reported sales of Pennsylvania at $6 00@6 50, and Philadelphia $5 50.

BACON AND PROVISIONS—The only changes we have to note in this branch of trade is the decline in mess pork, which now sells at $17@18 ₩ bbl. Other articles remain unchanged. The market, though not an active one, is firm. We quote as follows: Shoulders, plain, 7½@7¾c; sugar-cured canvassed 10½c; Sides, Ribbed, 10c; Clear do. 11c; Sugar Cured Hams, Canvassed, 15c; plain do, 14½c; Breakfast Bacon—13c Plain, and 14c Canvassed; Dried Beef 18½@19c. Mess Pork 17@18c ₩ bbl. Lard, city rendered, in tierces, 11c; in buckets 12c ₩ lb.

CORN MEAL—There is a better inquiry, and sales are made at $3 25 ₩ bbl; ₩ bushel 90c.

CEMENT—Louisville Hydraulic $2 50@2 75 ₩ bbl. Beeson's Phœnix Hydraulic, $3 50@3 75; Johnston, $2 25; Rosendale, $4 00@4 50; Calcined plaster, $4 50; Land plaster, $3 50@3 75 ₩ bbl.

CHEESE—Receipts 615 boxes. Prices are less firm, though not quotably lower. New Ohio Goshen 13½@14c; Ohio Factory 12@13c; Western Reserve 11@12c. Little old cheese in the market.

CARBON OIL—Sales in a regular way at 22@23c.

COUNTRY MEATS—Demand light and the inquiry mainly for small lots; we continue to quote shoulders at 6@6½c; ribbed sides, 7@7½c; clear sides, 8@8½c; hams, 10½@10¾c. Country lard, 9@10c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches and apples are becoming scarce. The nominal rates are as follows: Peaches—quarters 10@11c; mixed 12@13c; halves 14@15c; peeled 20@25c ₩ lb. Apples—prime quality scarce; would bring 6@7c ₩ lb; common dull and hard to dispose of.

FEATHERS—We quote live geese, first hands, No. 1, at 74@75c ₩ lb; store 80c.

EGGS—There is an increased supply and prices are lower. We quote good fresh at 18@18½c.

CANNED ARTICLES—The current rates were: Peaches—2 lb cans $2 00@2 50 ₩ doz; 3 lb cans $3 00@3 50. Tomatoes—3 lb cans $2 50@2 70. Winslow's Corn—$2 50@2 75 ₩ doz.

FLOUR—Receipts since our last amount to 1,668 barrels. Prices are firm, but the anticipated advance has not yet taken place. We quote as follows: Mills—Amber in barrels $7 45; in sacks $7 25; Palmetto, in barrels, $7 35; in sacks $7 05. The leading operators report sales of store and western brands: Choice spring wheat, $7 00@7 25; winter wheat, $7 00@7 25; white wheat, $7 50; choice Minnesota $7 50; sales of sacked flour 25 to 30c ₩ barrel less. Rye flour is in fair demand with sales at $6@6 25 ₩ barrel.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
WEDNESDAY June 7, 1871.

REMARKS—The market yesterday was firm with a good inquiry. A number of round lots were reported as changing hands, the particulars of which we were not able to ascertain. The advantages of the market was on the side of holders, who will no doubt make good use of the same.

CRUDE.

The following are the current quotations: It may be proper to state that the tendency is upward. June, 13¼c. lines; June to December, 13½c asked; B. O., first six months, 13½c asked; S. O. all year, 12¾@12½c; B. O., all year, 14c asked.

COAL MARKETS.

CINCINNATI.

June 5.—We have a steady retail trade at quotations. There is not much afloat, and but little doing. It is held at 8c for Ohio river, and 12c for Youghiogheny. Delivered to consumers, the former sells at 12c, and the latter at 16c. Cannel 18c. Gas coke 8c from the yards, and 10c delivered. Hard foundery coke 10@12c delivered.

LOUISVILLE.

June 5.—Nothing has occurred to change any feature of the trade, and though the demand has been light, holders are very firm in their views, as the supply at this point is quite small. We quote Pittsburgh coal afloat, by the barge load, at 12c, and delivered to consumers at 16c. Pomeroy coal is held at 9c afloat, and 14c at retail.

STOCKS.

Stocks have been strong and active, especially on Western Union, Lake Shore, Rock Island and Northwesterns. The "bull" cliques have been buying all day and higher prices are predicted, as the "bears" have so far failed in their efforts to prevent an upward turn. The market closed strong and well up to the highest figures of the day, and there was increased activity and animation, especially in favorite shares.

	Tons.
Ashland	2,595
Pittsburgh	1,265
Wheeling	670
Ironton	300
Grand Tower	375
Cincinnati	270
New Albany	250

In addition to the above there was shipped during the week to various points on the Ohio, principally to Pittsburgh, 1,150 tons charcoal pig iron. There yet remains a large quantity of ores and metal awaiting shipment to the Ohio. Should there be a rise in that stream, shipments would be lively again. We did not learn what the prospects for the next week's shipments are.

RECEIPTS OF IRON ORE AND PIG IRON.

The receipts of iron ore and pig iron for the week ending yesterday were.

	Ore.	Pig Iron.
Iron Mountain Railroad	3,706	360

—Republican.

DURING the past week the receipts of petroleum at this port were as follows:

Crude, barrels	7,805
Refined, barrels	15,903

During the same period there were exported 1,622,506 gallons, the largest cargo being 315,714 gallons, carried out by the American bark St. John. Twenty-nine vessels are now loading.—Philadelphia Press.

Carrie Brooks....Darlington.......Zanesville.

Monongahela two feet three inches and stationary.

THE marks last evening indicated about two feet three inches and about a stand. The weather during the day was excessively warm.

NAVIGATION to the lower ports remains suspended, there being no arrivals or departures.

THE wharfage collections at the port of Memphis for the month of May amounted to $3,990.

AMONG the guests at the Spencer House, Cincinnati, were Captain D. W. Maratta, of New Orleans; Captain Frank Maratta, of Pittsburgh.

THE Science and New State are being fitted up for low water packets between Wheeling and Parkersburg.

THE steamer Lanthe is now running regularly between Malden and St. Albany, on the upper Kanawha, making one daily round trip.

NAVIGATION on the lower Ohio is suspended for the present. The low price of freights don't justify boats running on the present water.

CAPTAIN S. R. PATTERSON is receiving freight for the Morgantown, West Virginia, packet, and says he is bound to put it through on time.

WE have no change to note as relates to the condition of navigation. Boats are still running in the slack water.

CINCINNATI.—The following boats were in port: Charles Bodmann, Kate Putnam, Exchange, Wananita, Minneola, R. C. Gray, Nashville, R. W. Skillinger, St. James and Ben. Franklin.

ON account of some informality, objections were raised by Judge Polsley to the confirmation of the sale of the Point Pleasant Marine Railway property, and we learn that the Court sustained the objections. A meeting of the stockholders was held at Point Pleasant last Saturday.

THE latest advices from the great water dog, at Blue river are to the effect that skillful marksmen have been employed to shoot the thing, and several shots have already pierced his hide, but with no telling effect. He yet liveth, and blows his "bazoo" with his usual vim.

A CAIRO dispatch June 4th says: The Simpson Horner and Lioness have tows of empty barges. The W. H. Brown and Comet have tows of iron for Pittsburgh. The Rover has 1,000 tons iron ore, 1,060 tons pig iron for Pittsburgh; she returns from Louisville for five barges ore left here.

THE new packet West Virginia, Capt. S. Donaldson, is running regularly between Port Perry and Geneva. She is a good boat and well adapted for the trade. Capt. S. R. Patterson is her agent, who will be found on the wharfboat, and will attend to any business that may be offered.

OFFICIAL SURVEY OF THE OHIO RIVER FROM PITTSBURGH TO CAIRO.—At the request of our river friends we have published a third edition of this important table, with various improvements. It can be obtained at the COMMERCIAL office at ten cents per copy, or three copies for twenty-five cents.

TRADE on the slack water moves along steadily. The mail packet E. Bennett leaves daily on time, and by exchanging trips at Port Perry with the Elector and Chieftain, passengers meet with no detention. Captain A. S. Carlisle will be found on board at all times during business hours. Any business entrusted to the Captain will be done up about right. The wharfboat is located at the foot of Grant street.

SOUTHERN STEAMSHIP INTERESTS.—The Liverpool and Mississippi Steamship Line will have five new steamers running next month. The Memphis, 2,400 tons, has been launched; the Vicksburg, 2,500 tons, and the Mississippi, 2,200 tons, are building. These, together with the St. Louis, and one to replace the Crescent City (sunk off the coast of Ireland), all new iron steamers of the best style, will form a line of which New Orleans may well be proud. The Hamburg and Bremen Line will also put on two new iron steamers, built for the trade.—N. O. Picayune.

THE CINCINNATI-BUILT IRON STEAMER JOHN T. MOORE.—Various rumors of late have been circulated to the effect that the above named steamer, running on Red river as an independent boat, has been obliged to succumb to the fierce opposition of Jesse K. Bell's combination, but the following cut from the Louisiana (Alexandria) Democrat, of May 24, gives us the assurance that Captain Billy Boardman's good sense has not yet deserted him, and that the Moore is still ahead of the "hounds:" "The combination have sickened making false tilts at the iron steamer John T. Moore. After this she will be left alone in her glory and well earned speed, and every other attribute combined to make up a perfect steamer."

LOUISVILLE.—Monday's Courier-Journal says: The weather yesterday was extremely hot from early in the morning until sundown. It was by far the most oppressive day of the season; there was not a particle of air stirring. The mercury stood at ninety degrees the greater part of the day. The river is fast approaching low water mark. At six P. M. yesterday the water marks showed only two feet eleven inches on the pass down the Indian chute, and four feet eleven inches in the canal. There were a number of arrivals and departures, but nearly all had quite enough freight for the water, consequently there was nothing done on the levee outside of discharging.

HOW IS THIS FOR HIGH, 'RAH FOR OUR TOWBOATS.—Pilot's report of the Grand Lake No. 2, Capt. Jos. Williams: The pegs set for other towboats coming up tight, when it is beat, will be set farther. May 27, left Donaldsonville, Louisiana, at 12 M.; stopped at Baton Rouge, to let Mr. Vandine off on the Ajax, at 4:15 P. M.; at 6 P. M. was at the head of Prophet's Island; met the Hornet at Fora River, at dark at New Texas Landing, at Red River at 10:30. May 28, met Lioness No. 2 below Union Point at 12:30 A. M., just daylight at Natchez by Pittsburgh time, 5 A. M.; met Wm. Cowen at Hole-in-the-Wall at 6:20 A. M.; first twenty-four hours out was at Davis' Cutoff 12 M.; passed Vicksburg at 2 P. M.; passed Simpson Horner, leaving there, at 6 P. M.; at Transylvania, just dark; at Skipworth Landing at 8 P. M. May 29, daylight, at Venice; passed White river at 9:30 A. M.; two days out; at foot of Island 68 at 12 M.; at 2 P. M., at head of Island 64, that is twenty-four hours from Vicksburg; met Dick Fulton No. 3 and John A. Wood at Montezuma at 4:30 P. M.; took coal at Helena; lost fourteen minutes; met Grayhound at foot of Bordeaux, at dark; at the head of Clark's Bar passed the Jas. McDonald landed there. May 30, we landed at Memphis at 1:30 A. M.; coaled out of our fuel boat; lost four hours; left at 5:30 A. M.; came around Island 40; run slow a great many times to try the water for to go back on; at 12 M. was at Osceola; met the Sharp McDonald at Fletcher's Crossing; met the Baltic at head of Island 21 at 4 P. M.; met James Howard at Pemby-cow; met the Glencoe at Bothe's Point; passed Atlantic at head of Island 16 at 6 P. M.; at foot of Island 14 passed Robert Mitchel at or below Tiptonville; was dark at Point Pleasant. May 31, arrived at Cairo at 4 A. M., being three days and sixteen hours out from Donaldsonville to Cairo, being three days and a half running time; have come to Donaldsonville, from New Orleans, in six hours, which would be from New Orleans to Cairo in three days and eighteen hours. When that is beat by a towboat we will come in six hours less.

FINANCIAL.

7-30 Gold Loan

OF THE

Northern Pacific Railroad.

RAPID PROGRESS OF THE WORK.

The building of the Northern Pacific Railroad, (begun July last), is being pushed forward with great energy from both extremities of the line. Several thousand men are employed in Minnesota and on the Pacific coast. The grade is nearly completed 266 miles westward from Lake Superior; trains are running over 130 miles of finished road, and track-laying is rapidly progressing toward the eastern border of Dakota. Including its purchase of the St. Paul and Pacific Road, the Northern Pacific Company now has 413 miles of completed road, and by September next this will be increased to at least 560.

A GOOD INVESTMENT. Jay Cooke & Co. are now selling, and unhesitatingly recommend, as a Profitable and perfectly Safe investment, the First Mortgage Land Grant Gold Bonds of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. They have 30 years to run, bear Seven and Three-Tenths per cent gold interest (more than 8 per cent. currency) and are secured by First and only Mortgage on the ENTIRE ROAD AND ITS EQUIPMENTS, and also, as fast as the Road is completed, on 23,000 ACRES OF LAND to every mile of track, or 500 Acres for each $1,000 Bond. They are exempt from U. S. Tax; Principal and Interest are payable in Gold; Denominations: Coupons, $100 to $1,000; Registered, $100 to $10,000.

LANDS FOR BONDS. Northern Pacific 7 30s are at all times receivable at TEN PER CENT. ABOVE PAR, in exchange for the Company's Lands, at the lowest cash price. This renders them practically INTEREST BEARING LAND WARRANTS.

SINKING FUND. The proceeds of all sales of Lands are required to be devoted to the re-purchase and cancellation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Company. The Land Grant of the Road exceeds Fifty Million Acres. This immense Sinking Fund will undoubtedly cancel the principal of the Company's bonded debt before it falls due. With their ample security and high rate of interest, there is no investment, accessible to the people, which is more PROFITABLE OR SAFE.

EXCHANGING U. S. FIVE-TWENTIES. The success of the New Government 5 per cent. Loan will compel the early surrender of United States 6 per cents. Many holders of Five-Twenties are now exchanging them for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties, thus realizing a handsome profit, and greatly increasing their yearly income.

OTHER SECURITIES. All marketable Stocks and Bonds will be received at their highest current price in exchange for Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties. EXPRESS CHARGES on Money or Bonds received, and on Seven-Thirties sent in return, will be paid by the Financial Agents. Full information, maps, pamphlets, etc., can be obtained on application at any agency, or from the undersigned. For sale by

THE
New Orleans, Mobile and Texas
RAILROAD COMPANY

Are building a Trunk Line, connecting New Orleans with Mobile on the east, and giving

THE ONLY RAILROAD CONNECTION

Between the former city and the great and most productive State of Texas on the west, the total distance from Mobile to Houston being 475 miles.

The Company is composed of strong Northern capitalists, who have already expended nearly TEN MILLION DOLLARS of their own funds in the construction of the line. They have built about 225 miles from Mobile westward, and secured by purchase of securities and made provision for the thorough repair and equipment of the 108 miles constituting the Texas division; leaving but 140 miles to be built

To Complete the Entire Road.

It is believed that no other railroad corporation in the country has ever made so large an expenditure from its own means before offering any of its securities to the public.

The Company now offer for sale the

Eight Per Cent. Mortgage Bonds

Upon the Louisiana division of 226½ miles from New Orleans to the Sabine river. This will probrbly be the most valuable portion of the whole line, as it will be the only rail communication by which the enormous productions of Texas can reach the Southern metropolis.

So important is this road considered to Louisiana, that the State has made very liberal grants in aid of the enterprise, by direct donations, by indorsement of its bonds, and by subscriptions to the stock of the Company, amounting in all to over eight million of dollars.

The Bonds now offered are of two classes:

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

To the amount of $12,500 per mile, and

SECOND MORTGAGE BONDS,

To an equal amount, both principal and interest guaranteed by the State of Louisiana. The price of the two classes is the same, and subscribers can take their choice.

The Bonds are only in the denomination of $1,000, or £200 each, interest payable January and July, at the rate of 8 per cent. currency in New York, or 7 per cent. gold in London, at the option of the holder, at the time each coupon is due. Bonds can be registered, if desired.

No Better Security has been Offered

To investors. The Bonds are largely profitable, as well as entirely safe. One thousand dollars invested in these eight per cent. bonds will give the purchaser MORE THAN SEVENTY-SEVEN PER CENT. greater annual interest than the same amount invested in the new Government Five Per Cents.

At the same price, an 8 per cent. currency long bond is far cheaper than a 7 per cent. gold one. Calculating a return to specie payments in three years, and taking the time that the bonds of the New Orleans, Mobile and Texas Railroad have to run—45 years—we find that by compounding the interest of each, every six months, at 7 per cent. AN 8 PER CENT. CURRENCY BOND AT 90 WILL GIVE A RETURN OF $2,614 18 MORE THAN A 7 PER CENT. GOLD BOND, AT THE SAME PRICE, OR NEARLY THREE TIMES THE AMOUNT OF THE ORIGINAL INVESTMENT.

The Bonds are dated May 1, 1871. The first coupon will, therefore, be a fractional one, running from May 1 to July 1. The price is 90, and accrued interest at 8 per cent. currency from May 1 to date of remittance.

Subscriptions will be received in Pittsburgh by Messrs. S. McCLEAN & CO., Bankers.

Information concerning the Company and the Road, and pamphlets containing map and full details of the enterprise, can be obtained of the undersigned or any of the Company's advertised agents,

HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU
HAS ACQUIRED A WORLD-WIDE FAME.

All of my preparations are meritorious. A period of twenty years has PROVED THIS to be the case.

See remarks made by Benjamin Traver, F. R. C. S. Speaking of those diseases, and diseases arising from the excess of mercury, he states that no remedy is equal to the Extract of Sarsaparilla; its power is extraordinary, more so than any other drug I am acquainted with. It is, in the strictest sense, a tonic, with this invaluable attribute, that it is applicable to a state of the system so sunken and yet so irritable as renders other substances of the tonic class unavailable or injurious.

See REMARKS of the GREAT CHEMISTS AND PILL MEN OF AMERICA.

WM. R. WARNER & CO.,
154 North Third street, Philadelphia, Penna.

H. T. HELMBOLD, Esteemed Friend: I congratulate you on having the handsomest and at the same time the MOST EFFECTIVE PILL that I have ever known for the purpose intended.

WM. R. WARNER & CO.

H. T. Helmbold

Will remark, in conclusion, that his remedies are the result of long and careful study. The Fluid Extracts have been before the public twenty years; the sale of them in that time proves their value. All have been benefited by them who followed my instructions, and to-day they stand UNEQUALED in the extent of their sale and UNSURPASSED by any Mendicant in the Dispensatory of the United States, not excepting a single HERB, ROOT, PLANT, or scientific preparation.

Pharmaceutical I claim all mine to be and have never patented a single one.

All Stand on Their Merits.

The Pill I have thought of offering to the afflicted for ten years.

They are now perfect, and I shall now stake my time money and fame on their effectiveness. The inviting style in which the pill itself is made, the bottle, label, wrapper—all show with what care they have been prepared. After examination, no English or French preparation will show greater care, and I am really proud of them.

Instead of the nauseous looking, carelessly prepared Pills vended generally and put up in wooden boxes, and made generally or offered by those having no experience as physicians, druggists, or manufacturers of medicines, test the medicine made by your obedient servant,

WASHINGTON.

U. S. Financial Agency in London.

Duties of Neutrals, as Defined in the Treaty of Washington—The Washington and Ohio Railroad, &c., &c.

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, 1871.

Our Financial Agency in London.

The disposition of the Financial Agency of the United States at London has become a matter which excites considerable interest, both here and abroad. The Baring Brothers having held this lucrative position for fifty-three years, are not disposed to relinquish it without a strong struggle. The numerous friends of ex-Secretary McCullough, who is now the chief of the London house of Jay Cooke & Co., are making strenuous efforts to obtain this appointment for him, without as yet any definite prospect of success. During the war Thurlow Weed endeavored to have this agency tranferred to the banking house of Brown Brothers. At that time the whole disposition of the matter was referred to Charles Francis Adams, then our Minister at St. James, who decided in favor of retaining the Barings.

Duties of Neutrals.

The Washington treaty received severe criticism from various quarters in the Senate, because of the indefinite manner in which the final settlement of the questions involved had been postponed, opposition to its ratification being chiefly centred upon the construction which was given to the second new rule as to duties of neutrals, which it was proposed to engraft upon the international code. In the debate which arose upon this rule, it was held that the United States would be precluded from the customary export and sale of arms and contraband of war. There is unquestionable authority for stating that the British Commissioners interpreted this clause in a much more liberal manner, and had their construction been generally known, it would have prevented much discussion upon this question while the treaty was under consideration.

Personal.

Gen. H. V. Boynton, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette and Pittsburgh COMMERCIAL, arrived here to-night from Ohio, where he has been for several days, accompanied by his bride, to whom he was married during this visit.

Washington and Ohio Railroad.

The Washington and Ohio Railroad Company have advertised for proposals to be received until the 15th inst. for the graduation, masonry and bridging of the road from Hamilton its present terminus, to Winchester, a distance of thirty-one miles, the whole to be completed by May of next year.

MOVEMENTS OF GEN. GRANT.

When President Grant returns from West Point next Monday, he will visit Washington for a few days on official business.

THE PRINTERS' EXCURSION.

The delegates to the International Typographical Union of North America, now in session at Baltimore, arrived here this morning to accept an invitation from Columbia Typographical Union, of this territory, to visit Mount Vernon and other points of interest on the Potomac. The guests took the steamer Wawasset for Mt. Vernon, where interesting exercises were held. They returned to Baltimore this evening.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, June 6, 1871.

GRAU AND BRIGNOLI IN COURT.

The Marine Court to-day tried the case of Grau, the theatrical manager, vs. Brignoli. The plaintiff testified that Brignoli engaged him for last season as manager of opera in Chicago; that the venture failed, and Brignoli paid him nothing. The defense was that Brignoli had an understanding with Grau that he was to be paid nothing until Brignoli made $500 a week profit, which sum was never realized. Verdict for the plaintiff.

SEVERE SENTENCE.

John Gebney, who on the 14th of April attempted to cut down the crucifix in St. Vincent's Catholic Church, and wounded with a knife the man who seized him, was convicted in the Court of General Sessions of felonious assault, and sentenced by Recorder Hackett to the State prison for seven years.

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. GRANT

Arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this morning from Long Branch, and leave this afternoon for West Point. Numerous politicians, office seekers and others thronged the hotel, but only a favored few were granted an interview.

THE COLORED STRIKERS.

The discontented colored laborers renewed their interference with the white employes on the public works to-day. Several arrests were made. A large force of police are preventing any dangerous outbreak.

MASONRY.

The Grand Masonic Lodge of the State of New York began its annual session at Apollo Hall, this city, to-day. Grand Master Anthon, in his address, said he had recalled the commission of their representative to France, and that fraternal relations were impossible with French Masonry and other bodies sharing its errors. The annual reports of the various officers of the Grand body were submitted, showing the receipts the past year were $63,854; total receipts of the hall and asylum fund to date, $115,873, and number of members admitted to the order in the State last year 7,859. Lodges authorized the Secretary to erase from the rolls the names of members in arrears of dues.

HELD FOR EXTRADITION.

In the case of the crew of the British bark Manitoba, charged with committing a murderous assault on officers on the high seas, Commissioner White, after discharging the steward, against whom there was no evidence, decided to hold the other seven for extradition. The Commissioner, however, will delay his report for a short time, to give the British Consul an opportunity to decide what action he will take with regard to three of the accused, who were present but did not participate in the assault.

MUTINY AND MURDER.

The Captain of the ship Europa, which arrived here to-day, reported that on June 3d, in latitude 47 degrees 12 minutes, longitude 68 degrees 27 minutes he saw the brig J. S. Bowen with a signal of distress flying, he bore down to her, and discovered that the crew had mutinied and killed the captain, who was found dead in his berth, with his skull split open. The chief mate lay on deck senseless, with his head badly cut; the second mate had an arm broken, and was otherwise badly injured. Two men and one passenger were also badly beaten. The Captain of the Europa put his mate on board the brig to bring her into port, and fears are entertained for his safety, as the brig is overdue. A revenue cutter is waiting for her in the lower bay.

Titusville Petroleum Market.

TITUSVILLE, PA., June 6.—The Courier reports the petroleum market as follows:

SALES.

1,000 bbls upper road, spot	$4 97½
2,000 bbls upper road, spot	5 00
3,000 bbls upper road, B. O. June	5 10
3,000 bbls upper road, B. O. June	5 12½
3,000 bbls upper road, S. O. 60 days	5 02½
650 bbls Petroleum Centre, regardless	5 15
500 bbls Petroleum Centre, regardless	5 20
1,000 bbls Petroleum Centre, regardless	5 20
1,000 bbls lower road, B. O. June	5 25
3,000 bbls lower road, 45 gravity	5 30
1,000 bbls Oil City, 47 gravity	5 40
1,000 bbls Coal City, 47 gravity	5 25

The excitement of yesterday continued to-day, slightly moderated, and principally confined to the lower road. Prices slightly advanced; the highest ruled at the close. The short interest was apparently convinced that there would be no lower prices before July, and settlements were made as rapidly as possible. Upwards of 25,000 bbls. on first contracts were settled for to-day, on lower road, for $5 20, and 6,000. barrels of oil on demand. On the upper road a moderate business was done, but $5 00 was the well established market for spot. On the lower road the figure was $5 20, at which settlements were effected. At Oil City little was offered at less than $5 50—too high for buyers, and no more than $5 40 was paid. The market closed firm.

The stone work and pedestal for the statue of Gen. Reynolds, to be erected in the National Cemetery at Gettysburg by the First Army Corps, will be put in place this week. The statue, which is to be made of bronze and cannon captured from the rebels, will not be completed before October.

EUROPE.

BY THE ATLANTIC CABLE.

Thiers's Conference with the Committee on the Right to Seats of the Orleans Princes—Communist Prisoners to be Transported—Commercial Relations Between France and Germany Restored—The Pope's Encyclical Letter—Coolie Vessel Burnt at Sea and 600 Coolies Perish in the Flames—Proceedings of the English Parliament, &c., &c.

Concerning the Orleans Princes.

VERSAILLES, June 6.—Thiers, in his conference with the committee appointed by the Assembly to consider the bill concerning the Orleans princes, urged that conditions should be attached by which the Princes were not to hold office before the expiration of two years, and were liable to expulsion from France if they engaged in any intrigue looking to their restoration to the throne. It is now noticed that Thiers has ceased to insist on these conditions. The bill introduced in the Assembly for rebuilding the column in the Place Vendome has been withdrawn.

Postal Service Restored—Communist Prisoners to be Transported.

PARIS, June 6.—The postal service is now completely restored.

It is announced that twenty thousand Communist prisoners will be transported to New Caledonia. The discovery of important documents, rendering new indictments necessary, has delayed trials by court-martial at Versailles.

Commercial Relations Restored.

BERLIN, June 6.—Commercial relations between Germany and France have been restored to the same footing as before the war.

Encyclical Letter.

ROME, June 6.—An encyclical letter has been issued, calling on Catholics throughout the world to give thanks to God on the occasion of the Pope's jubilee.

The English Parliament.

LONDON, June 6.—The House of Lords passed a bill authorizing Canada to organize territorial governments in the country lying between the dominion and the Pacific coast.

Burnt at Sea.

Advices from Hong Kong to May 26th report that a "Coolie" from Mexico for Collao was burnt at sea and 600 coolies perished in the flames. The particulars received are conflicting.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND AND PACIFIC RAILROAD.

CHICAGO, June 6.—The annual meeting of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific Railroad is to be held in this city on Wednesday, June 7, for the election of directors. It is rumored there is to be an extra stock or cash dividend declared.

FORT SCOTT AND HUMBOLDT RAILROAD.

FORT SCOTT, KS., June 6.—The contract has to-day been completed for making the road-bed, doing the masonry and building the bridges of the Fort Scott and Humboldt Railroad. Work will begin immediately and cars will be running over the line within a few months. The western extension will be immediately pushed and Fort Scott will become the railroad center of the State.

INDIANA NORTHERN RAILROAD PROJECT.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., June 6.—Articles of association of the Indiana Northern Railroad was filed today with the Secretary of State. The road will extend from New Castle, Ind., to Farmland, Ind., connecting with the Cincinnati and Martinville Railroad and extending to Bloomington, Ind.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis of Observations by the United States Signal Corps for the Past Twenty-Four Hours—Probabilities.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER,
WASHINGTON, D. C., June 6, 7:30 P. M., 1871.

Synopsis for the past twenty-four hours: The weather has remained sensibly unchanged since Monday afternoon at the Pacific and Rocky Mountain stations. The barometer fell rapidly last night in Illinois, but has recovered to-day, and has fallen very generally this afternoon from Lake Michigan to Lake Ontario. The pressure now is somewhat below the average from the Mississippi to the Atlantic. The temperature has risen on Lakes Erie and Ontario. It has fallen from Ohio to Missouri. Southeasterly winds have prevailed during the day on the Atlantic coast, and fresh northwesterly winds from Kentucky to Wisconsin and westward. Heavy rainstorms have been reported from Illinois to Lake Superior, and are now in progress from Indiana to Lake Huron, with threatening weather in Western Tennessee and on Lake Ontario.

PROBABILITIES.

Clear weather is probable for Wednesday from Pennsylvania to Iowa and southward. It is probable that threatening and rainy weather will be experienced from Ohio to Lake Ontario and the extreme Eastern States to-night, with partially cloudy and clear weather on Wednesday. The threatening weather which is now prevailing on the lakes is a remnant of the storm which was at Galveston June 4th, and Keywest June 1st.

SEVERE STORM.

Part of Galveston Inundated—Railroad Track Washed Away—Vessels Lost.

GALVESTON, June 6.—A terrible storm has prevailed here since last Saturday noon. The wind forced the waters of the Gulf on the island, covering it to a depth of several feet in the southeastern part of the city. About two miles of track of the Galveston, Houston and Henderson railroad is washed away, two miles above the city. The bridge across the bay is safe. The steamship Alabama, of the Morgan Line, with a cargo of cattle and sheep from Rockport to New Orleans, went ashore twenty miles west of here Sunday, and will probably be a wreck. The bark Virginia Dare, from Cardiff for Galveston, with a cargo of railroad iron, went down about six miles east of here Sunday night. The crew, consisting of fourteen men, were yesterday taken from the masts, where they had been lashed since three o'clock Sunday morning. Many buildings in the lower part of the city have been washed away. No lives were lost. Six inches of rain has fallen since Saturday at 2 P. M. The storm also prevailed to a great extent at Houston, and much damage was done there. There were heavy rains at all the telegraph stations in the interior.

POLITICAL.

CONCORD, N. H., June 6.—This city has never in its political records presented so lively a scene as today. All the politicians of the State are here engineering for the organization of the Legislature tomorrow. All but ten of the one hundred and sixty-seven representatives are calculated upon. As the Democratic party strength was present last evening, the Democrats are claiming the organization of the House by ten majority, in which event the Senate vacancies will not be filled until after the Convention for counting the Governor's vote, as the Senate will not organize. If the Democrats are successful, G. W. N. Pittman, Democrat, of Bartlett, will be elected President of the Senate, and W. N. Gove, Labor Reform, of Weare, Speaker of the House, and John P. Jackson, of Lincoln, Clerk. The Republican members express themselves confidently as to the result. Republican representatives Scott, of Keene, and Johnson, of Pittsboro, are ill and not able to be present. The Republican candidate for Speaker will probably be Colonel Wm. C. Vattere, of Kingston, and J. H. Benton, Jr., Clerk. Well informed politicians calculate on Weston's election as Governor by a close vote, say five, and the Democrats say they can elect him even if the House is organized by the Republicans. The members are not called upon to be present before this evening, but there is already a larger relative representation of membsrs elect present than ever voted in the organization of the Legislature.

CONCORD, N. H., June 6.—There is no reason to change the prediction that Weston will be elected. No doubt the majority of the House is made up of heretofore Republicans, but for one reason or another they will coalesce with the Democracy.

ADDITIONAL RIVER DISPATCHES.

Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, June 6.—River eight feet, having fallen six inches. Arrived—Hudson, Wheeling; Palestine and Charmer, Evansville. Departed—Hudson, Wheeling; Annie Laurie, Kanawha; Abeona, St. Louis. Weather hot and showery this afternoon and evening. Business dull.

Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, June 5.—The river is falling slowly, with two feet six inches in the chute and four feet six inches in the canal. Very warm and raining this afternoon and to-night. Business very dull. Arrived—Lioness, Mary Houston, Nick Longworth, New Orleans; the Argosy, New Orleans to Cincinnati, is expected to-night.

Evansville.

EVANSVILLE, June 6.—Weather cloudy and hot. River fallen two feet. Port list: Down—Lawrence and Alaska, late last night; America, 7 P. M.; Nightingale, 3 P. M.; Mary Ament and Rose Hite, 7 P. M.; Florence Lee and Arkansas Belle, 6 P. M. Up—Idlewild, Belle Vernon and Argosy, 4 A. M.; Low Water, 6 A. M.; Fayette and Bermuda, 10 A. M.; Anna, 11 A. M.; Comet, 12 M.

Nashville.

NASHVILLE, June 6.—River rising, with six feet on Harpeth shoals. Weather fair and oppressively warm. Arrived—John Lumsden, Cairo. Departed—Burksville, Upper Cumberland.

Cairo.

CAIRO, June 6.—Port list: Colorado, Vicksburg to St. Louis, 1 A. M.; Kate Robinson, Cincinnati to St. Louis, 2 A. M.; Boaz, New Orleans to Louisville; J. H. Bigley, Cairo to New Orleans, 3 A. M.; Columbia, Arkansas river to St. Louis, 9 A. M.; Mohawk, St. Louis to New Orleans, 10 A. M.; Victory, New Orleans to Cairo, 11 A. M.; Continental, Cairo to New Orleans, 12 M.; City of Chester, St. Louis to Memphis, 6 P. M.; Mary Alice, New Orleans to St. Louis, 7 P. M.; Quickstep, Evansville packet, 5 P. M. River stationary. Weather showery all the forenoon; clear to-night; mercury 82.

Memphis.

MEMPHIS, June 6.—Clear and warm. River falling. Up—Natchez and Julia. Down—City of Vicksburg, Indiana and Legal Tender.

St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, June 6.—Arrived—Rob Roy, Keokuk; Grand Tower, Memphis; Commonwealth, New Orleans; W. H. Brown and John Gilmore, Cairo; Florence, Tennessee river; Mollie McPike, Galena; S. Thayer, Mound City. Departed—Silver Lake, Fort Benton; City of Cairo, Vicksburg; Henry Ames and City of Alton, New Orleans; Capital City, Kansas City; Davenport, St. Paul, Rob Roy, Keokuk. River still falling here, but the Missouri is rising rapidly. Heavy rain last night; weather cooler to-day.

New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, June 5.—Departed—R. E. Lee, Vicksburg; Glencoe, Louisville; Kellogg and barges, St. Louis; John A. Wood and barges, Pittsburgh. Arrived—Virginia, Louisville; John Kyle and Pauline Carroll, St. Louis.

Vicksburg.

VICKSBURG, June 6.—Down—Groesbeck, M. J. Wicks and W. S. Pike. Up—H. C. Yeager, Belle St. Louis. Heavy rains continue and planters are very much discouraged. River falling one foot per day.

Buffalo Cattle Market.

BUFFALO, June 6.—Cattle market continues dull, although the receipts are somewhat lighter, being 279 cars against 317 the same day last week, nearly half going East in first hands. Advices from the West and East were such as to keep off buyers, and the few sales were to local butchers. The market is ¼c lower than last week. The supply is of a good quality; sales reached about 125 as follows: 50 Ohio steers weighing 1,222 to 1,370 lbs at $5 00@5 80; 54 Illinois 1,110 to 1,312 lbs, $5 25@5 85, and 18 others on private terms. Sheep firmer; 3,00 Kentucky lambs were going East in first hands; sales 413 weighing 80 to 90 lbs at $4 75@5 18. Hogs—92 cars received 80 went East. There being no demand; only 296 were sold at $4 32@4 37½.

Watertown Cattle Market.

WATERTOWN, MASS., June 6.—Beef Cattle—Receipts 246 head; offerings generally of good grades, and prices have again fallen off fully ½c; sales of choice at $10 25; extra $9 75@10 00; first quality $9 50; second quality $8 00@9 50; third quality $6@7 50. Sheep and lambs—receipts 989 head; prices remain about the same as last week; sales in lots at $5 75@6 50; extra $6 75@9 50. Veal calves $5@12.

The Erie Dispatch says that William Hough, the young man accidentally shot in Wesleyville a few days since, is still alive, and apparently likely to live, although the skull of his forehead is broken to splinters. The brain can be plainly seen. There are some cases on record, in which a portion of the front part of the brain has been lost, and yet the patient has lived years afterwards. At the base of the skull, the point of a needle into the brain is as sure death as a bullet through the heart.

CYCLONE IN ILLINOIS.

Terrible Destruction—Singular Effect Upon Vegetation—Altogether Wonderful Phenomenon.

A remarkable phenomenon occurred on Friday last near Mason City, about six miles west of Jacksonville, Illinois. It is regarded as one of the most remarkable tornadoes or incipient cyclones ever witnessed in this or any other country. A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune says that on the morning of the day stated, while the air was intensely sultry, an inky-hued cloud or smoke-like column was observed gathering near the earth's surface. Soon this great black column, the base of which rested on the earth, shot up three distinct and well-defined, but narrower and spire-like cloud columns, which continued to ascend rapidly until they reached and seemed to attach themselves closely to a passing cloud above. The frightful spectacle continued to move eastward slowly, but constantly, for some fifteen minutes; then changed its course slightly to the southeastward, greatly to the relief of the people of Mason, who were expecting to see their town torn to pieces by the angry elements. For some fifteen minutes longer the dreadful apparition moved slowly on, changing its shape considerably as it progressed. The two outer spire-like columns soon disappeared, leaving none but the inner column resting upon the great base cloud below, and still attaching itself to the cloud above. Suddenly the awful apparition disappeared, as if it had been but a vision or a dream, and not a fearful reality. While the black column was moving, a cold current of air coming from the west was most sensibly felt at Mason City, and a mile away from its track an odor much like that of burning sulphur was inhaled by several persons. A gentleman, who had been a soldier, and was in many battles, stood but a hundred yards from the tornado when it passed, and he says that small flashes of electricity were constantly visible in the storm column, passing from the earth to the cloud above, and that rapid popping, cracking reports were heard, reminding him most forcibly of an infantry regiment in battle, firing their muskets as fast as possible.

As fearful as was the appearance of this column or columns, resting upon the earth and reaching to and taking fast hold on the clouds of heaven, more marvelous, if possible, was its destructive work upon the earth in its pathway, which was near three miles in length, and varying in width from twenty to eighty feet. Not a spear of grass; not a stalk of corn or wheat; not a shrub; not a particle of green vegetation was left alive. Had the fires descended from heaven and fallen in the pathway of this tornado, as they did on Sodom, the destruction of every living thing of the vegetable kingdom could not have been more complete. For some distance in its path the earth was literally plowed up to the depth of six inches. In passing over the unbroken prairie, so inconceivably rapid must have been the rotary motion of the wind of the tornado, that the earth was gathered up from the deep roots of the prairie grass, and the turf, with its bare roots as clean as if they had been washed, was lifted from the earth and left strewn in the storm's pathway. Where the course of the tornado led through a wheat field, every stalk of wheat standing in its path was torn down and twisted into every conceivable space; and where an osage hedge lay across its way for the width of its path, the hedge-bushes were torn into shreds.

But the most wonderful of all the phenomena connected with this tornado is that the column of whirling air must have been intensely hot, as is shown by the fact that every spear of grass, stalk of corn and wheat, every green thing in its path, were literally dried to a crisp. The prairie grass along the storm's track, which was luxuriantly green before the tornado passed, was left as brown and dead as it is found in midwinter. The leaves of the hedge where the tornado passed across in its way crumbled as do the dead, dry leaves of the forest after the blasting autumn frost has done its work. The young corn which stood in its way is as black as if a withering fire had passed through it. Another feature of this tornado was that while its rotary motion must have been of inconceivably great velocity, its progressive motion was not above the rate of six miles an hour. The outlines of its pathway were so well defined that five feet from the outer line of total destruction of vegetation of every kind not a vestige of its effects could be seen. In fact, the outlines of its path of destruction were almost as clearly marked as that of a mowers swath through the meadow, and its work more complete.

Fortunately, no house stood in the tornado's line of march. It passed between a farm house and barn, but escaped both. Its onward movement was so slow that man or beast, if in its way, could easily escape. The progressive motion of a tornado is usually at the rate of thirty to sixty miles an hour; the fact of this one moving at the rate of six miles per hour was most singular. The path of a tornado is usually a quarter or a half mile in width; this was but twenty to eighty feet in width. This is another unusual feature.

THE MIGNAULT AFFAIR.

Card from Rev. Napoleon Mignault, of Titusville—He Denies Committing a Brutal Assault on His Niece, Miss Menard.

We printed yesterday morning an account of a rather unfortunate affair in Titusville, taken from the Herald. In that journal of yesterday morning we find another article on the subject, and also a card from Rev. Napoleon Mignault. The Herald says:

"We have only to say that our version of the affair was derived from eye witnesses, whose credibility has not been impeached. We do not propose to make up a verdict for the public; they can draw their own conclusions; but neither do we propose to screen the offender. It was with equal grief and shame that every citizen, Protestant or Catholic, listened to the scandalous recital. Neither the priestly office nor any other relation can justify acts or words of violence and passion towards either the weak or erring. Whatever may be the decree of a bishop or the vote of a congregation, there is a spirit and instinct in man that teaches him that such things are wrong and not to be connived at or palliated. It is a sad thing for the good reputation of our city and for the cause of holy religion that such an act has been committed, and while we extend to the accused all the charity of construction which he invokes, such an act can never be safely repeated."

Following is the card referred to: "It is with a feeling of grief and shame that I feel compelled to come before the public at this time; but since the appearance of the article in yesterday's Herald, charging me with the commission of a crime, the very nature of which would stamp me as a brute rather than a man, it is my duty to my congregation and myself to refute, through the medium of newspaper columns, this foul slander upon my reputation, which is dearer to me than life itself. The statements made in that article are nearly all entirely false or higly exaggerated, and were I at liberty to make known to the public all the attending and extenuating circumstances, there is not a father in this city who would not say, without hesitation, that I had done no more than he would have done in a like situation. The young lady referred to is an orphan child of a beloved uncle of mine. She has been a member of my household for seventeen years, ever since she was a little child. She is my ward, my charge. I have all the interest in her that a father could feel for an idolized child. Let me say to all that there are circumstances connected with this case which, if made public, would not only exculpate me from all blame, but would turn the heart of every parent to me in the warmest of sympathy.

EARTHQUAKE IN CHINA.

Terrible Effects—Town Destroyed and Over 2,000 People Killed.

The United States Minister in China, Gov. Low, has recently communicated to the State Department a translation of the official report of a terrible earthquake at Bathang, China, in April. It occurred on the 11th of the month. The earth was shaken so violently that nearly all the buildings and fortifications of the town were destroyed. A few of the troops and people escaped, but most of the inmates of the houses were killed under the falling timber and stone. Flames suddenly burst out, and continued until the 16th, when they were put down, but rumbling noises were still heard under ground like distant thunder and the earth rocked like a ship in the storm at the mercy of the waves. Several days before the earthquake the water had overflown the dyke of the town, and when it had receded the earth cracked in many places, and black, fetid water spurted out in a furious manner. There were destroyed three large temples, six smaller ones, and the government buildings, besides 1,849 rooms and houses of the common people. The number of persons killed was 2,298, among whom were the local magistrates. The earthquake extended over a circuit of nearly 400 miles, occurring simultaneously over the whole region. In some places steep hills split and sunk into deep pits; in others, hills on level spots became precipitous cliffs and the roads and highways were rendered impassable by obstructions.

STATE NEWS.

The small-pox is said to prevail in Erie.

A ten year old daughter of Thomas Connors, of Meadville, was burned to death on Friday, by kindling a fire in the manner so popular just now.

The annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, will be held in Harrisburg, commencing Tuesday, June 13th, and continuing four days—Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. There are forty commanderies in Pennsylvania, each of which is expected to send from thirty to forty Sir Knights.

The complimentary testimonial benefit to Mrs. Caroline Richings-Bernard and Mr. C. D. Hess, at the Academy of Music, Philadelphia, Saturday afternoon and evening, was not a pecuniary success. The Philadelphians can't be coaxed or driven out in hot weather, says the Press.

A little daughter of Mr. Henry Dykeman, of Williamstown, Dauphin county, died on Tuesday morning of last week from the effects of drinking a small quantity of lye that had been prepared for some domestic purpose and left standing on a table in the kitchen, from which it was taken by the child.

Rev. Jonas Wendell, of Edinboro, Erie county, has been completely vindicated. The charge of adultery proves to have been trumped up by a personal enemy. Instead of wronging Miss Mary Terry, he was engaged in an effort to furnish her with reputable employment and prevent her return to the House of Refuge, when he was arrested.

Jesse Beach, one of the early pioneers of Bradford county, died of cancer on the 29th ult., aged eighty-four years.

Mr. Francis Bastian, of Jackson township, Lycoming county, died on May 21st, aged seventy-eight years, eight months and seven days. Mr. Bastian was the father of fourteen children, the grandfather of ninety and the great-grandfather of twenty-three, in all one hundred and twenty-seven descendants.

The Harrisburg Patriot says: John H. Scott, long and favorably know as an employee of the Northern Central Railroad Company, died of apoplexy on Friday afternoon at his residence, Hanover Junction. The deceased had been in the employ of the Northern Central Railroad Company since 1829, then known as the Baltimore and Susquehanna Railroad Company, having commenced as the driver of a horse car, before locomotives were introduced on the road, and when it only extended as far as the village of Timonium. When the road was completed to York, and steam used, Mr. Scott was appointed one of the first conductors and remained in that position until the terrible accident near Rider's switch, when he was very badly injured and was compelled to retire from the position of conductor. He, however, on recovering from his wounds, was kept in the employ of the company and so remained until his death. The deceased was in his fifty-ninth year, during forty-two of which he was in the continuous employ of the Northern Central Railroad Company.

Some one set fire to a tank containing one hundred barrels of oil, at the Appletree well, Rouseville, on Friday, and while it was burning stole $100 from the engineer. Wright & Rockwell owned the tank and oil.

An old gentleman named John Irvine, of Corry, aged sixty, was killed at Spring Creek on the 29th ult., by being caught by a falling tree.

Members of the Pennsylvania Legislature in 1685 were not as extravagantly fixed up nor lived as sumptuously as those of 1871, as will be seen by the following resolution passed in the former year: "No member shall come to the House barefoot, or eat his bread and cheese on the steps."

The Clarion county agricultural society will hold a fair on the 3d, 4th and 5th of October.

Hon. J. Glancy Jones has pledged a liberal contribution to Wyoming College.

A young girl of Williamsport, who had been attending boarding school at Bethlehem, eloped with a gambler and sailed from New York for Europe on Wednesday. The father of the girl arrived hastily at the dock an hour after the vessel had sailed, and wept bitterly on ascertaining the hopelessness of his attempt to stop the runaways.

The project of a monument to William Penn, started in Reading some fifteen years ago, when a design was procured and nearly enough money raised, has been revived. The building of a soldier's monument in Penn square is also urged.

George Albert, aged ninety-four years, was killed near Wilkesbarre last Wednesday by a railroad train. He was very deaf, and did not hear the warning.

Important Land Case.

An important case involving a title to nearly two hundred thousand acres of valuable land in Minnesota has just been decided, by Acting Secretary Cowan, of the Interior Department. The case was between the St. Paul Pacific Railroad Company and George T. Brett. The latter claimed to have preempted the land, while the company affirmed that it was covered by the land grant of March 3, 1867. Secretary Browning decided that no lands whatever should be conveyed to said railroad company until the right of Mr. Brett to the land in controversy was recognized by the company. This decision was confirmed by the subsequent Secretary. General Cowan to-day revised this decision, and all land due the company will be certified to them, except the tract claimed by Mr. Brett. A warrant will also be issued to Mr. Brett for the lands claimed by him, when the validity of this title will doubtless be tested in the courts.

CARD TO THE CONTRIBUTORS.

In explanation of the above it was suggested that a card be published as follows:

To the President and Contributors of the Allegheny County Prison Society:

GENTLEMEN—We enter upon our fifth year in debt, owing perhaps to the fact of the resignation of our old agent, Rev. A. McLaughlin, who had become familiar with our contributors, and our new agent, Rev. Mr. Hall, not having had time to acquaint himself with their places of business. Our work has grown to such an extent that we need the entire time of our agent in our jail, and if our old friends would send their contributions to the treasurer it would save many valuable hours and even days. Several thousand prisoners pass through the jail annually. Our agent acts as pastor to these and their families. We have no larger field than is embraced in the prison work. We venture to say that no church in our cities furnishes so extensive and difficult a field of labor. Some may say, "Why, your money nearly all goes to pay your agent." Well, the agent, as already stated, is pastor to those who are in prison. He visits them and ministers to them. In our churches the largest sum expended always goes to paying the pastor's salaries. "I was in prison and ye visited me not." Jesus will say to those who will be cast out at the last day. It is the duty of christian people while they have the gospel preached to them, at the same time either to go or send that gospel to those also who are in prison. Our labors in the prison have not been in vain. We know of some who now believe and trust in Jesus having heard of him in prison. We know of some who labor in the Sabbath School, having been taught of the great Teacher in prison. We know of some who are loving and kind to their families now, and support them as Christian husbands and fathers should do, who in prison heard that Jesus was loving and kind. Then, will not all send in their contributions to carry on our Savior's work in the jail? "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

REMARKS OF THE AGENT.

The agent said he had visited the jail twenty times during the past month; also that he visited a great number of the friends of the prisoners, assisting them, &c. He stated that the work progresses and that while he meets with discouragements, there are many things calculated to encourage and stimulate to new zeal and energy.

Numerous other remarks were made of what had been done and what the society is still doing.

The society then adjourned.

THE G. A. R. AND DECORATION DAY.

Resolutions of Thanks.

HEADQUARTERS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE G. A. R.

At a meeting of the committee, held last evening, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of this committee be and are hereby returned to Mrs. Samuel McKee and other ladies of the Monumental Committee; to Messrs. Bachelor, Gormly and others of the Subsistence Committee, for the very complete and ample arrangements made by them for the entertainment of the soldiers' orphans from Phillipsburgh and Uniontown on the occasion of their visit to Pittsburgh on the 30th of May; to Mr. James W. Haney and the many others who kindly furnished conveyances for these children, as well as to all citizens who so liberally contributed to their entertainment.

Thanks are also tendered to Mr. A. M. Marshall, of Allegheny, who kindly allowed the Committee the use of his grounds for a resting place for the orphans; also, to General T. A. Rowley, for the courtesy extended in halting his brigade to permit the Grand Army and their Orphan guests to pass to the right of the column when returning from Seminary Hill, a graceful compliment rendered by an old soldier and appreciated by his comrades to whom it was paid. Also, to Colonel J. H. Stewart, for his very successful management as Chairman of the Finance and Transportation Committees; to the Pittsburgh and Connellsville railroad, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railway, and Allegheny Valley railroad, for courtesies extended, and to all others who in any way aided the committee in organizing the ceremonies of May 30th.

Wilkins Township School Assessments.

The School Board of Wilkins township had a meeting on Monday, and levied a tax of sixteen mills for the ensuing year—eight mills for building and eight mills for educational purposes. Last year the assessment was ten mills in all. The purpose is to erect two new school houses, one near Braddock borough and the other at the extreme eastern end of the township, on a branch of Turtle creek. One of the members of the Board, Mr. Newmeyer, endeavored to secure the erection of a suitable building for a graded school for the accommodation of the children of Wilkinsburgh and Edgewood, but without success. The Board is doubtless satisfied that these localities will be able to take care of their own educational interests, as soon as they can get the decision of the Supreme Court on the appeal from the decree of the Quarter Sessions, creating an independent District out of Wilkinsburgh and Edgewood. These populous villages are held in the township against the wishes of the people, simply for the purpose of lessening the burdens of the other parts of the township. This recent action on the part of the Board ought to open the eyes of those in Wilksburgh and Edgewood who opposed the independent school and borough projects.

The A. V. R. R. Offices—Who Occupy the New Buildings.

We have on several occasions referred to the new building, corner of Eleventh and Pike streets, recently erected by the Allegheny Valley Railroad Company, for the use of its officers, and revert to it now merely for the purpose of informing our readers and the thousands having business with those connected with the management of the road, where they may be found. Our reporter while in the locality mentioned, yesterday dropped into Col. Philips's room, and through the courtesy of his gentlemanly and obliging Secretary, Mr. Ulysses Pollock, was shown through the entire building.

It was occupied in times gone by as a tobacco warehouse, and was thoroughly remodelled and made available to the purposes of the company some months since, though the several officers have but lately removed to their new quarters. It is finished in a plain style, and both the interior and exterior in all of their appointments are stripped of everything pertaining to extravagance. It is neatly, tastefully and comfortably finished and furnished however, and will compare favorably with any other railroad office in this city.

Room No. 1 on the first floor is occupied as the telegraph office; Thomas M. King, Assistant Superintendent, is located in No. 2; the cashier of the freight department occupies No. 3; the freight agent, Mr. Nettleton, is domiciled in No. 5; Colonel J. J. Lawrence, General Superintendent, may be found in Nos. 7 and 8, on the second floor; Captain W. A. Tomlinson, Treasurer, and his assistant, Mr. T. O'Leary, have a watchful eye over the finances, in No. 9, opposite the President's room; Colonel Wm. Philips and his Secretary, Mr. Pollock, enjoy the coziness of Nos. 10 and 11—Mr. Pollock having the first room, and the Colonel using the other, which is considerably larger; No. 12, adjoining, is designated as the Directors meeting or consultation room, and being larger still is often occupied by the President, who, as our readers know, takes up a good deal of room; J. T. Rowand, Esq., Auditor, presides over No. 13; the Paymaster replenishes the exchequer of the employees from No. 17, and the Chief Engineer No. 18. On the third floor is a large room designated as the "banquet hall," where, on the occasion of the stockholders annual meeting, a "feast of good things," is given.

The building in all its appertenances is quite perfect and complete, and the carpets, oil cloths, &c., of very pretty patterns and fine quality. It is designed, as our reporter was informed, to have the walls frescoed neatly, and when this work is accomplished the offices will certainly be among the finest in the city. The building formerly occupied by a portion of the officers, located directly opposite the new building, is now unoccupied at present. It is probable it will be torn down at no distant day.

CITY MATTERS IN BRIEF.

AT an election held in the Armory, David Dunseath, Jr., was elected First Lieutenant Third Company Duquesne Greys, to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of John H. McMasters.

WE have received the first number of the National Oil Journal, published in this city by Messrs. George E. Palmer & Co. It is well filled with matter of special interest to the oil trade, and presents a very neat typographical appearance.

A MEETING of the stockholders of the Tripartite Bridge Company was held yesterday morning at the St. Charles Hotel. Mr. James Caldwell was called to the chair, and Messrs. Wm. S. Brown and David Robinson appointed Secretaries. The Chairman announced that the meeting was called for the purpose of organizing under the new charter and choosing a board of officers to serve until the regular election, in January next. The following ticket was then put in nomination and unanimously elected: President, Hon. J. K. Moorhead; Secretary, David Robinson; Treasurer, John R. McCune; Directors, D. Hostetter, James T. Wood, Joseph Walton, Jas. Caldwell, R. F. Smyth, W. S. Jackson. After a vote of thanks to Harry Shirls, Esq., the proprietor of the St. Charles Hotel, for the use of his parlors, the meeting adjourned.

Small-Pox and Scarlet Fever.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

As small-pox and scarlet fever are getting so prevalent in this city and Allegheny that a great many families to my knowledge are somewhat scared, I desire to make it known through the columns of your valuable paper that I have received a communication from an eminent physician in London, England, which is recommended as a certain preventive for variola, gubeola and scarlatina (small-pox, measles or scarlet fever). This remedy is to be taken in conjunction with a bath, say two or three times a week, which any family can make at a cost of a half to one cent a bath. Any one who desires to get this remedy or obtain any information concerning it, can do so free of charge, by calling at my office, 145 Fifth avenue, opposite the Court House. Respectfully, W. J. GRIFFITH, M. D.

Concordia European Hotel, Corner Smithfield Street and the Diamond.

The Concordia European Hotel, corner of Smithfield street and the Diamond, lately thrown open to the public, is a new and beautiful one in design and finish. The arrangement and fitting up with all the modern improvements, and being in the central part of the business community, will bring it favorably into notice of the commercial traveler. The commercial traveler requires a large and commodious room, well furnished, ventilated and lighted, with the necessary conveniences and attachments to their rooms. All these are combined in the rooms of the Concordia European hotel. Then, too, in regard to meals, should they be required, they will be promptly furnished, and with all of the substantials and delicacies of the season at very moderate rates, in fact the very reasonable charges at the Concordia will bring it the formest amongst European hotels. Mr. Frederick Schmidt, the proprietor, is a gentleman, and a host who knows how to run a first class house, and with his ample means will make it one of the best of hotels; has the finest wine cellars in Pittsburgh, and a bar that has few equals, where fine liquors, wines, ale and beer are dispensed. The commercial traveler is cordially recommened to the hotel of Mr. Schmidt.

Grace Memorial Church.

The colored people of this vicinity have measures on foot looking to the erection of a house of worship, to be designated "Grace Memorial Church," and in order to raise funds toward the same a fair and festival is being held in City Hall. It commenced on Monday night, and will be continued during this week and part of next week. Season tickets are sold at $1 25. Dinner is served every day, beginning at twelve o'clock, and business men and others would assist a very worthy cause by dropping in at City Hall about noon time, instead of patronizing their regular saloon keeper.

PENNSYLVANIA FEMALE COLLEGE—Corner stone laying.—The contributors, patrons and friends of the Pennsylvania Female College are invited to be present at the laying of the corner-stone of the new extention on Thursday, the 8th inst., at 5 o'clock, P. M. The train leaves the Union depot at 4:20. By order of the Board of Trustees. W. T. Beatty, Secretary.

Regular Meeting of the Board of Control—Reports of Committees—The High School Question to be Submitted to a Vote of the People.

A regular monthly meeting of the Allegheny Board of School Controllers was held last evening in the Common Council chamber.

At seven and a half o'clock the meeting was called to order by the President who offered the opening prayer.

The roll was then called, when a quorum of members was found to be present.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Reports from visiting committees of the respective wards were now called for, and the schools were reported to be in good condition. In the first ward there were three cases of corporeal punishment reported; in the Second ward, fourteen cases Fifth ward, five cases, and Sixth ward four cases.

Mr. A. Hobson, from the Finance Committee, submitted a report stating that the Committee had complied with the resolution passed by the Board at its last meeting, and purchased a safe to keep the records of the Board, from the firm of Fleming & Bro. for three hundred dollars. The cost of conveying the safe to the office of the Receiver of taxes was nine dollars. A resolution also accompanied the report, authorizing the Secretary to draw a warrant in favor of Fleming & Bro. for three hundred dollars, and a warrant of nine dollars in favor of McNish & Butler. The report was received and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Patterson, from the Committee on Teachers and Salaries, submitted a report, apportioning the number of teachers to be allowed each ward the coming school year, as follows: First ward, 13; Second, 26; Third, 26; Fourth, 21; Fifth, 15; Sixth, 16; Seventh, 9; Eighth, 4; colored school, 3. A resolution accompanied the report, recommending that the Seventh ward and colored schools be allowed to have the same number of teachers they had the previous year, the Seventh ward to have ten and the colored school four teachers, although the average attendance in these schools from September to May first would not justify that number. The report was accepted, and the resolution adopted.

THE HIGH SCHOOL QUESTION.

Mr. Sloan, from the special committee appointed at the last meeting to consider the feasibility of establishing a High School in the city, presented a report, recommending the establishment of a High School. The report appeared in our columns on Monday, May 29th.

On motion of Dr. Nesbit, the first resolution, recommending the establishment of a High School to go into operation September next, was taken up for consideration.

Dr. Nesbit said he was in favor of a High School, but thought that the establishment of a school of this character, and other enterprises which were contemplated, would prevent the consolidation of the two cities which might otherwise be effected. He thought that nothing should be done that might interfere with this movement.

Mr. McCance inquired how many scholars would likely attend the High School. The Fourth ward have two buildings and the higher classes in each school contain but few scholars. The Principals have not enough of work on hand already, and he was under the impression that very few scholars would attend the school.

Mr. Eaton said that there was no probability that a consolidation of the two cities would be effected. The school, he thought, was badly needed, and the establishment of such a school would be a great benefit to the people, and would greatly repay the cost. Many of the children of the city are now sent to select schools, who would otherwise be sent to the High School.

Mr. Pitcairn said the matter should go to a vote of the people. This was a matter of expenditure, and one in which the people was interested and their wishes should be consulted.

Mr. Sloan, in answer to the question of Mr. McCance, thought that about one hundred scholars would attend the first session.

The discussion was continued some length, and was participated in by almost every member of the Board, after which Mr. McCance moved that the whole matter be referred to the people at the next city election. The nays and yeas were called, which resulted in 26 yeas and 9 nays, so the motion was carried.

Dr. Nesbit moved that a committee of one from each ward be appointed by the respective local Boards, to be reported at the next meeting of the Board of Controllers, and that it shall be the duty of the committee to have tickets prepared "For High School," "Against High School," and to report the result of the election to the Board. Carried.

Mr. Donaldson moved that the next meeting of the Board be held on the second Tuesday of July instead of the first, as the first Tuesday will be the Fourth. Carried.

Mr. Sprague offered the following:

WHEREAS, There is now existing in this city a contagious disease, and there is a danger of it becoming epidemic for the want of proper sanitary regulations; therefore,

Be it Resolved, That a due regard of the health of the children under our control demand that all necessary arrangements should be provided at once for the preservation of their health.

Resolved, That we request Councils to organize at once an efficient Board of Health.

The resolutions were adopted.

Mr. Eaton moved that the schools close for the summer vacation on Friday evening, June 30, and open on the first Monday of September. Carried.

A number of bills were then presented, and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment.

The meeting then adjourned.

Birmingham Council.

A regular monthly meeting of the Council of Birmingham was held last evening, Burgess Salisbury in the chair.

Mr. Atterbury, from the Finance committee, reported that there was a balance in the treasury of $1,186 44. The committee also examined the reports of the borough officers and found them correct.

The committee also reported in relation to the raising of the salary of the Burgess, to make it $100 instead of $50 as heretofore, and also to allow the clerk $50 for extra services. The report was accepted and the recommendation in regard to the salary of the Burgess and clerk was adopted.

Mr. Atterbury moved that the tax assessment for the coming year be eighteen mills.

Mr. Duncan, of the Street Committee, reported that they are doing a great amount of work in paving, curbing, repairing and recurbing of the streets. Report accepted and filed.

Mr. Schwarm moved that Ninth street, from Bingham to Carson streets, be paved. Amended by Mr. Eiefel to pave the street to Williams street. The amendment was carried.

Mr. Schwarm moved to pave Williams street from Ninth to Tenth streets. Carried.

Mr. Ziefel moved to advertise for proposals for the grading and paving of the above street. Carried.

Mr. Atterbury moved that the Market Committee collect rent from the stalls until the first of July, and draw up an agreement to get it signed by the owners of the stalls, releasing the borough for the balance of the year. Carried.

Mr. Atterbury moved that all sewer drops that may be necessary in Washington street be put up. Carried.

The Clerk read a report from the Borough Regulators, in relation to the grades of streets in the borough. Received and filed.

Mr. Atterbury moved that a committee of three be appointed to draw up an ordinance fixing the grades of the streets and fixing the duties of the Regulator. Carried, and Messrs. Atterbury, Ziefel and Conway were appointed.

Mr. Schneider moved that a sanitary committee of citizens outside of the Council be appointed during the present warm season, the committee to consist of three from each precinct, and to report their actions to the Council.

Dr. I. W. Riggs, Charles Evans, Bernhard Welker, Patterson Pearson, Michael Knowles and Dr. J. D. Thomas were then appointed. The committee shall have power to abate nuisances and change water courses if found necessary.

The reports of the borough officers were read and received.

A number of bills were presented, and warrants ordered to drawn for their payment.

On motion, adjourned.

FOR INDIGESTION, Dyspepsia, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms, also as a preventive against fever and ague, and other intermittent fevers, the "Ferrophosphrated Elixir of Calisaya," made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., of New York, and sold by all druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness it has no equal. MILLINERY GOODS.

The ladies are doing their best, one would think, to keep themselves in the latest of styles and comfortable as well as in seasonable attire. By witnessing the throng at Rosenbaum, Fleishman & Co.'s Philadelphia millinery emporium, 76 Market street, coming and going constantly, and to notice the smiling countenances as they emerge, we surmise the taste has been suited and purchases made. The endless variety of millinery goods, the many beautiful and charming designs displayed cannot fail to excite the admiration of the ladies, and the constant and new arrivals daily makes this store a very popular resort. Let all the ladies bear this in mind and be sure to call at the emporium before returning home when out shopping.

Deafness.

There are many diseases of the ear which are now as remediable as of any other part of the body, and we cannot but be amazed that people would neglect so important an organ as that of hearing, especially when the means of cure are so readily obtainable. Apart from what passes as hard-hearing and total deafness, there are other disagreeable sensations peculiar to the organ of hearing which are completely within the reach of chirurgical skill and can be entirely removed; among these may be classed purulent discharges, buzzing, singing like the sound of a teakettle, grasshoppers, spindles, &c. These sounds are frequently, if not always the precursors of some unnatural state of the organ of hearing, or probably of some other physical ailment which, if removed, the other will pass off with the removal of the cause. Discharges of matter from the ear are usually the result of some ulcerations or abrasion of the surface of the internal ear, and it is frequently attended with deafness or at least impaired hearing, which, if neglected, will soon end in total loss of hearing.

Dr. Keyser, of this city, has an office in the rear of his great medicine store for the treatment of all such cases, as well as a large class of chronic maladies to which it were difficult to give a name. The Doctor has investigated chronic ailments with more than ordinary industry, and the cases of cures which he has published now and again, place his ability in the vantage grounds as regards chronic diseases of every sort,

"Fortune Favors the Brave."

The above saying is trite, but so appropriate that we cannot resist applying it to Mr. J. M. Hale, of No. 29 Fifth avenue. This gentleman has taken such a bold, determined stand against an evil custom—we refer to the habit of paying commissions—that we are pleased to notice the evident success that is meeting this independent policy. Mr. Hale has just given us an additional proof of his knowledge of the need of the people by securing the sole agency for the world renowned Decker Bro. Piano. This piano is too well known in Pittsburgh to need more than the announcement that it is to be had at 29 Fifth avenue, in order to secure a rush of custom. So that there may be no lack of variety, Mr. Hale has also secured the agency for the Heazleton Brother and the Stanley & Son pianos. An immense stock of these three well known makes of pianos, together with a large number of the celebrated Peloubet, Pelton & Co. organs, will be on exhibition at the warerooms, No. 29 Fifth avenue. Mr. Hale sells at reduced prices, as heretofore advertised, because he will give no commissions. Persons desiring to purchase, or those interested in musical affairs, will do well to call at No. 29, as such a collection of leading instruments is not to be found elsewhere in our city.
